Cream

We are predicting higher prices for cream during the winter months, extra care should be given your milch cows. They will earn you more money. You can be assured that our cream-paying prices are always the highest, and we also pay 1 cent per pound butterfat over truck prices for cream delivered to the creamery. We test your cream and make payment within 20 minutes.

Eggs

The egg market is still firm. We try hrrd to give the producer the very best grade to comply with government regulations. Market your eggs often, as eggs held too long become stale and must be placed in lower grades. We have a very good market for eggs, and our prices are always up to the market.

Poultry

We are continually striving to secure the best possible markets for poultry, so that we, in turn, can pay the producers the highest possible prices. If your poultry is ready for market deliver them to the creamery, or have our truck pick them up. We have raised prices 2 cents per pound for dressed chickens over 5 lbs. in weight.

DUCKS AND GEESE

Wit hthe present high feed prices, we think it dvisable to market your ducks and geese now, instead of waiting for the Christmas market. Our prices are good.

The Late Wesley Jamieson

(By Eugenia Reporter)

Our community was saddened by the untimely passing of one of our respected young men, Wesley James Jamieson, on Nov. 28th, in his 29th year. He was the youngest son of Mrs. Jamieson and the late Fred Jamieson, 8th line, Artemesia. Wesley's health became impaired over a year ago and he spent last winter in the Toronto General Hospital. He came home in the spring and was progressing favorably, but took ill again this fall. He entered Markdale hospital on Monday, Nov. 24th, and passed away the following Friday.

Deceased was of a jovial disposition, even when not feeling the best having his little jokes. He made many friends who will deeply mourn his passing. He attended the United Church and was a member of the Eugenia Orange Lodge.

The funeral on Monday, Dec. 1st, was largely attended. Following a private service at his late home, the remains were taken to Eugenia United Church, where his pastor, Rev. A. G. Macpherson, delivered a very comforting message, the text being taken from the 29th Psalm. The choir erndered "Face to Face." Other hymns used were "Rock of Ages" and "Safe in The Arms of Jesus." Interment was made in Flesherton Cemetery, Chapel, from where the remains will be taken in the spring and interred in the family plot.

The pallbearers were Ben and Bryce Hanley, Jim Magee, Gerald Magee, Laurie McKechnie and Ian Wilson.

The flower bearers were: Billie McMillan, Billy Hanley, Billie Magee Ken Magee, Ken McKechnie, Stanley Magee and Norman Harris.

Among the beautiful floral tributes were a wreath from 8th Line neighbors, Goodyear Company and others.

Besides his sorrowing mother he leaves in sad bereavement one sister, Mrs. Jack Patterson (Dorothy) and one brother, Jark, of Toronto.

We extend our sympathy to the family left in sad bereavement.

Remembrance is the rose that blooms
Eternal year by year,
Sweet memories clinging to the heart
Will keep our loved ones near.
The tender thoughts that linger on
Are links that ever bind
The loved one who has gone ahead,
With those he left behind.
