in Ontario used their Provincial Wholesale in 1946-47 to a greater degree than ever before. As a result the Wholesale was able to increase its volume, earnings and patronage returns. The local co-operatives in turn distributed these wholesale earnings to their farmer members.

Working together in an increasing number of common undertakings, the Central and the local co-operatives record with pride a year of progress.

ROCK MILLS

The mill has been running steady despite the cold spell we had. The old stock of logs will take three weeks yet to saw. Fresh cut logs are now beginning to come in again and the company expects to put in a large stock this winter for another season's sawig.

The teacher, Miss Hass, and pupils are busy practising for their Christmas concert to be held in the school December 19.

Mr. Elwood Partridge is improving nicely now and gaining strength rapidly. He was able to visit on Sunday at the home of his brothers, Ken and Lloyd, along with Mrs. Partridge and Shirley and Joan and Wayne McMaster.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Aitcheson of Bethel visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Russell and Elva.

The heavy rain has taken most of the snow away and left the roads very icy and slippery for travelling.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Russell and Elva were at Proton on Saturday to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. F. Irish, an old neighbour of theirs when they both lived in the Wareham district. We extend our sympathy to the bereved family in the loss of a loving Christian mother.

Our sympathy is extended to the Oliver family in their bereavment by the passing of a loving and kind mother.

"Oh, well," the husband remarked philosophically. "When all is said and done....."

"When all is said and done ..... what?" asked his wife.

"When all is said and done, there's been a lot more said than done."

The quiet man in the crowd had grown tired of the boastful talk of the others. During a lull in the conversation, he said:

"My brother has just secured a novel mechanical contrivance which operates in a most amazing way."

"How?" said someone.

"Well, by means of a fulcrum lever pedal attachment it converts vertical reciprocal motion into circular impetus. Its principal part is a huge hardened disk that revolves parallel to gravitation rays of force. Power is appied through the axis of the disk, where the hardest steel may be worked into shape."

"What is this marvelous machine?"

"A grindstone."

PRICEVILLE

(Intended for Last Week)

Wednesday night friends and neighbours met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fisher to spend a social hour with them before leaving for their new home at Holstein, where he has purchased a garage. The evening was spent in dancing, with music being supplied by Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn McFadden of Flesherton. At the midnigrt hour M. and Mrs. Fisher and boys, Arthur and Mervyn, were asked to come forward when an address was read by Mrs. Wm. Beaton and the presentation of a lovely floor lamp was made by Cecil Fawcett. Mrs. Jim Sturrock also read an address to Mrs. Fisher and the presentation of a lovely table lamp from the club members, where she has been a faithful member since 1921. Mr. Fisher on behalf of his wife and family voiced his appreciation and thanks for the good wishes and gifts and invited all to visit them at their new home. All joined and sang, "For they are Jolly Good Fellows." Lunch was served and a social time spent. They will be much missed in the community, where they were ever ready to help in any way they could.
