EUGENIA

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Purvis and daughter, Shirley, of Toronto and her fiance, Bud Richter of Long Island, were week end visitors with the former's father, Mr. R. Purvis.

Misses Mary and Isabel McKee and Mr. McCarthy of Toronto were week end visitors at the McKee home.

Miss Marge Martin of McKean's Mill school spent the week end at her parental home.

Mr. Robt. Purvis had the misfortune to fall on the icy road and sprain one of his ankles. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Magee visited with Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Magee at Maxwell on Sunday.

A dance was held in the hall on Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Breadner. A presentation of a floor lamp was made to the newly-weds by the community. Both Mr. and Mrs. Breadner made appreciative replies, thanking all for the kindness toward them.

MAXWELL

The W.I. met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Seeley Wednesday of last week, with a good attedance. The meeting opened with the singing of the Christmas carol "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing," followed with the Institute ode and prayer. All new business was transacted and a quizz program was conducted.

We are pelased to hear that morning service will be held in St. Mary's Church next Sunday, Dec. 21st, at 11 o'clock.

The annual church meeting and supper was held in the church hall last Thursday evening, with a good attendance of members. After the bounteous pot-luck supper, the meeting was held and all officials were returned to office by acclamation. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered for their splendid work during the past year.

Mrs. Stewart McMullen Passes In Toronto

Nellie Kathleen Spencer, wife of Stewart McMullen, passed away on Tuesday, Dec. 9th, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Glen Davis, 91 Edgewood Ave., Toronto.

Deceased was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Spencer of Dutroon, and was born near Feversham. She received her education from Feversham public school and Flesherton high school, after which she attended the Toronto Normal and the Ontario College of Art. She served several schools in Osprey and Toronto. In 1942 she was married to Mr. Stewart McMullen of Hamilton, formerly of Feversham.

Besides her husband, she leaves to mourn her loss, her parents and three sisters: Mrs. Glen Davis (Eva), Toronto; Mrs. J. A. Bell (Ruth), Collingwood, and Mrs. T. W. Beatty (Viva), Toronto.

The funeral service was held at the parental home in Duntroon on Friday, Dec. 12th, and was conducted by Rev. F. Dean of Shelburne, assisted by Rev. Birnie of Duntroon and Rev. A. Mills of Collingwood. During the service Mr. and Mrs. Dean sang "Holy, Holy, Holy is what the Angels sing."

The pallbearers were six brothers-in-law: Dr. Glenn Davis, T. W. Beatty, Ross Smith, Leslie, Herb and Jim McMullen. Interment was made in Flesherton Cemetery Chapel.

The many beautiful floral tributes attested to the esteem in which Mrs. McMullen was held by all who knew her.

BUCKINGHAM

Mrs. Wm. McArthur, Owen Sound, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Udell.

The Community Club held its December meeting at the home of Mrs. Alf. Hawton Thursday last, with 16 members and visitors present, the afternoon being spent in quilting. It was decided not to have a fowl supper on account of the uncertainty of the roads remaining open, and the proximity of Christmas. The election or officers was left over until the January meeting, for which Mrs. Melville Douglas offered the hospitality of her home.

Mr. Alvin Hawton is home from Brampton, where he spent several months with a construction company.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hawton and two sons visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Freethy.

We are glad to know that Mr. John Tupling is back at his home and progressing favorably after having undegrone a minor operation in the Collingwood hospital last week.

We join with others in this community in extending our sincere sympathy to Mr. Stewart McMullen and the Spencer family in the loss of their wife, daughter and sister, whose death occurred last week.

NOTICE TO SHIPPERS

Hogs will be received at Barrie during Christmas week only on Monday and Tuesday up to 5 p.m., and New Year's week up to Wednesday. Make your arrangements early for transportation.
