Local and Personal

Mrs. W. H. Scrace and children of Todmorden are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cairns.

Miss Agnes MacMillan of Thistletown spent the week end at her parental home.

Mr. Milton McEachnie of Malton visited on Sunday with his brother, Mr. Cecil McEachnie, and family.

Messrs. C. B. Perigoe of Malton and I. B. Perigoe of Toronto spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Ab. Stewart.

Rev. W. A. White of Cedarside Baptist Church had the misfortune to fall on the street on Friday and fracture a couple of ribs. He will have difficulty moving around for a few days.

A number from here attended the funeral of the late Lorne Champ of Dundalk, who died suddenly Friday morning of last week. He was secretary of Dundalk Masonic Lodge for many years and highly regarded.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Betts received word Monday evening of the death in Toronto of J. Allan Houden, husband of the former Alva Petch. His friends here tender deep sympathy to Mrs. Houden.

Card of Thanks

Mr. A. Follett wishes to thank all those who assisted in attempting to extinguish the fire which destroyed his cottage on the 12th Line.

Mrs. Jos. Whyte wishes to express her appreciation and gratitude to her neighbors and other friends for their kind expressions of sympathy tendered in many ways during her recent illness, at her home and in hospital.

Mrs. Firman Irish Passes

Mrs. Firman Irish passed away on Wednesday, Oct. 3rd, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Wylie, 136 Wolverleigh Blvd., Toronto, in her 86th year. The deceased had been ill for three months with a heart condition and had suffered with pneumonia twice within the last six weeks.

Mrs. Irish was the former Ann Roome, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Roome. She was born on the 4th Line of Osprey, her parents having settled there upon their arrival from England. However, her father, who was a pipe organ builder, having had a business in England, still carried on his trade, building and installing pipe organs in many parts of the world. Incidentally, the first organ in St. James Cathedral, Toronto, was installed by him, the parts having been made by hand, and, although another one has since been installed, the origial one still remains.

On Feb. 26th, 1889, she became the bride of Firman Irish, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Irish, Wareham. They spent most of their married life at Wareham and the remainder was lived in Toronto and the village of Proton. Since her husband's demise, she lived for a time in Flesherton and the last years of her life were spent in Toronto with her daughters, Mrs. Wylie and Gertrude.

Mrs. Irish is survived by one sister, Mrs. Louise Edwards, of Winnipeg, Man., one son, Charles, and four daughters: Mrs. J. H. Wylie (Irene), Mrs. A. J. H. Robinson (Olive), Mabel and Gertrude, all of Toronto. Four sons and a daughter predeceased her, namely: Fred, John, Reginald and an infant son and daughter, Edith.

A very largely attended funeral service was held at the McDougall & Brown funeral home on Danforth Avenue on Friday evening, Dec. 5th, and was conducted by Rev. E. W. Tokely, of Ottawa, a friend of the family. He was assisted by Rev. R. L. LeRoy of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, pastor of the deceased. Mr. Tokeley used for his text 2nd Timothy 4:7: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." He made mention of her devout faith and practical Christian living.

A further service was held at the McMillan Funeral Home at Dundalk on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 6th, when Rev. H. W. Hobbs of Proton conducted the service, with Mr. Earl Bray as soloist. Here, again, the large assembly present was an evidence of the high regard felt for this former neighbor and friend, who, converted in the Methodist Church at Wareham more than fifty years ago, had lived so radiant a Christian life. Mr. Hobbs based his address on John 12:27: "For this cause came I unto this hour," and, in paying tribute to the life of the departed, he stated: "Mother Irish was truly a Mother in Israel." As a young Christian, I found her to be an unfailing source of encouragement with her joyous, triumphant Christian spirit. Looking back over these years of acquaintance, I feel that we have lost from our midst one of God's choicest saints."

Interment was made at Mount Zion Cemetery, the pallbearers being: Sam Talbot, Russell Linton, Wm. McCutcheon, David McMillen, Clarence Watson and Roy [illegible]nwick.—Dundalk Herald.

Card of Thanks

The Carson family wish to thank their many friends and neighbors for their sympathy and many kind acts shown them during their recent bereavement, for the beautiful floral tributes, and also to the Old Boys and Girls Association for so kindly remembering Mr. and Mrs. Carson with treats last summer. It was greatly appreciated.

Card of Thanks

I wish to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to my many friends and neighbors who sent flowers, cards and treats while in Markdale Hospital, also to the W.I. of Flesherton for the lovely box of fruit and to others for boxes since my returning home.

—Mrs. Walter Russell
