Henderson - Copeland

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Copeland, Inistioge, effectively decorated with an arch of evergreens and flowers, was the setting for the marriage on Wednesday, Dec. 17th, of their daughter, Ruby Viola, to Eldon Laverne Henderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Henderson of Corbetton. Rev. A. G. Macpherson of Flesherton performed the ceremony and Mrs. A. G. Macpherson played the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore aqua blue dressmaker suit with a shoulder-length veil, flower headdress and a corsage of red carnations. Her attendants were her sister, Miss Hazel Copeland, and Miss Margaret Burnett. Both wore blue dressmaker suits with matching shoulder-length veils and flower headdresses. Their corsages were pink carnations. Ross Lyon of Corbetton was best man.

At the reception, Mrs. Copeland received her guests, wearing navy blue with a corsage of bronze 'mums. She was assisted by the groom's mother, who wore black with a corsage of white carnations. When the young couple left on their wedding trip to Toronto, the bride wore a blue coat with black accessories. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Henderson will reside at Corbetton.

Moore - Sheardown

In Toronto, at the bride's home, was the scene of an interesting wedding on Thursday, Dec. 4th, at 7 p. m., when Mary Irene, daughter of Mr. Lewis Sheardown and the late Mrs. Sheardown, formerly of Portlaw, became the bride of Alfred Walter Moore of Toronto. Rev. Jay of Perth Avenue United Church performed the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, lookely lovely in a street-length dress of rosebud embossed crepe, and carried red roses and a white dress of orange blossoms. Her bridal attendant was a close friend, Mrs. Austin Hill, who wore a dress of pale blue sheer and carried pink roses and blue 'mums, with a headdress of blue flowers. Reginald Moore was his brother's best man.

The groom's gift to his bride was a very beautiful three-piece dresser set of green plastic, to the bride's attendant a string of pearls, to the soloist a string of pearls, a wallet to Mr. Wesley Rhodes, who played the wedding music, and a cigarette case to the best man. Mrs. Steane sang "I'll walk beside you," before the wedding music and "Because" during the signing of the register.

At the reception, Mrs. Fred Westlake, aunt of the bride, received the guests, wearing a black crepe dress with corsage of yellow 'mums and roses, with Mrs. Moore, the groom's mother, assisting, wearing navy blue crepe with corsage of pink roses and 'mums. The buffet supper was served by aunts of the bride to about forty guests.

Later the young couple left on a wedding trip to Island Falls, the bride wearing a dress of gold wool, wine coat with black accessories. On their return they will reside in Toronto.

Mr. Allan Tupling of Toronto spent a couple of days last week at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Ralph entertained neighbors and friends at a progressive euchre party in their home on Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Hawton won the prizes for highest scores for men and ladies and Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Mullin the consolation prizes.

Quite a number, including the parents, enjoyed the concert held in the school Friday afternoon by the teacher, Mrs. Livingstone, and pupils. Although the number of pupils attending the school is not large, a very enjoyable program was given, after which lunch was served.
