

U.S. Insurance Institute recognizes safest cars

To reward 2013 models with superior crash protection, the Insurance Institute for Highway Safety (IIHS) in the U.S. is awarding its new Top Safety Pick+ accolade to 13 cars.

All earn good or acceptable ratings in the new IIHS small overlap test as well as top marks in other IIHS evaluations.

Winners include the Acura TL; Dodge Avenger and its twin, the Chrysler 200 four-door; Ford Fusion; Honda Accord two-door; Honda Accord four-door; Kia Optima; Nissan Altima four-door; Subaru Legacy and its twin, the Subaru Outback; Suzuki Kizashi; Volkswagen Passat and Volvo S60.

The Acura TL and Volvo S60 are midsize luxury cars. The other models are midsize moderately priced cars.

IIHS rates vehicles good, acceptable, marginal or poor based on performance in a moderate overlap frontal crash, small overlap frontal crash, side impact and rollover, plus evaluations of seat/head restraints for protection against neck injuries in rear impacts.
