Mrs. Archie Campbell Passes

Mrs. Archie Campbell, formerly Elizabeth Hayes, passed away suddenly on Monday Dec. 15th, at 12:30 noon at her late residence on the 4th Line, Osprey Township, in her 78th year.

The late Mrs. Campbell was born in Holland Township and at the age of 11 years moved to Osprey with her parents. In 1904 she was married to Archie Campbell, and resided on the 4th Line until her death.

She is survived by her husband, one son, Gladwyn, of Islington and three daughters, Elsie (Mrs. Cecil Ferguson), Sudbury; Marion (Mrs. Richard Hallam), Feversham, and Myrtle at home.

The funeral was held on Wednesday, Dec. 17th, with a short service at her late residence, conducted by Rev. J. R. Greig of Collingwood, and proceeded to Burns Presbyterian Church, Feversham, where the public service was held. The choir sang an anthem "No Night in Heaven." Interment was made in the cemetery at the church.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. Geo. Priestley, Clarence Winters, Jack Hislop, Dan McIntyre, Donald McInnes and D. A. McIntyre. The flower bearers were: Darlene Campbell, Blanche Priestley, Melvin Moore, Geo. McIntyre, Frank Hollingshead, Herman Clarke and Archie Priddle.

Among the beautiful floral tributes of love and sympathy were the following: Feversham Ladies' Aid and a wreath from the neighbors.

The Late Mrs. Jas. Knox

(By Ceylon Reporter)

There passed away Tuesday morning, Dec. 16th, at her home in Ceylon, Mrs. James Knox, the former Jane Richardson of Proton Township, in her 82nd year, daughter of the late John and Margaret Richardson and beloved wife of the late James Knox, to whom she was married 61 years ago. Her late husband predeceased her by 31 years. Their married life was spent in Proton Township and about 26 years ago the late Mrs. Knox moved to Ceylon. She was a member of the Presbyterian Church at Swinton Park, later attending the United Church in Ceylon while health permitted. Deceased took an active part in the Ladies' Aid and in the recent war years assisted in the Red Cross and will be greatly missed by her many friends and neighbors, by whom she was held in the highest esteem.

Left to mourn the loss of a loving mother are three daughters, Mabel (Mrs. Will McCormack), Swinton Park; Vina (Mrs. Robt. Howat), of Alberta; Marion (Mrs. J. A. Gillespie), Hopeville; and three sons, Robert, in Florida; Will, in Bowmanville, and Alex., in Toronto. One daughter, Margaret (Mrs. Bert Haw), predeceased her. Deceased leaves 21 grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. Also surviving are one brother, Alex. Richardson, of Markdale and one sister, Vina (Mrs. Cranston) of Dungannon.

Owing to weather conditions the funeral was held at 2:30 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 18th, at the McMillan Funeral Home, Dundalk, where friends and the United Church minister of Ceylon gave a comforting message to the bereaved family. The beautiful floral tributes were silent messages of love and sympathy and were carried by Messrs. Jack Haw, Eric Haw, Emerson Wiltshire, Joe Watson.

Interment was made in the Mortuary Chapel, Dundalk Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. Wallace McCormack, Jas. McCormack, Arthur Richardson, Ray Richardson, Gordon Haw, John Wiltshire.

Those attending the funeral from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Knox, Garnet and John, of Toronto; Mr. and Msr. Will Knox, Bowmanville; Miss Jean McCormack, Toronto; Mrs. Carl Bradley, Etobicoke; Miss Viotta Richardson, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Richardson, Markdale.

The sympathy of this community is extended to the bereaved.

Mrs. J. S. MacDermid Passes

(By Ceylon Reporter)

For the second time in the past week the residents of this small village and surrounding community, were saddened when they learned that another of their members had passed away in the person of Mrs. J. S. MacDermid in Markdale Hospital last Wednesday morning, Dec. 17, in her 59th year. Death was due to a paralytic stroke suffered about four weeks ago.

Deceased was formerly Mary Stewart, daughter of the late John and Mary Stewart, and had been a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church, Priceville, where she had taken an active interest in the church work, being an honorary member of the Women's Association, and was also interested in the Farm Women's Federation Club. The late Mrs. MacDermid had been a life-long resident of this district and was a neighbor and friend, who made life worth-while living and her many acts of kindness will be missed by a host of friends.

About ten years ago she was married to Mr. MacDermid, who survives, along with three children by a former marriage, namely: Evelyn (Mrs. Don Porter) of Toronto, and two sons, Wallace, of Toronto, and Melville at home. The late Mrs. MacDermid was the last member of a family of four brothers and three sisters.

The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon, with a short service at her home and the public service at 3:00 p.m. in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Priceville. Mr. Matthews, student ministser, gave a comforting message to the bereaved husband and family. The hymns were: "Lead, Kindly Light" and "Abide With Me." The number of neighbors and friends who assembled at the home and the church were evidence of the high esteem in which deceased was held in the community. Interment was made in the McNeil Cemetery, Priceville.

The beautiful floral tributes were carried by Messrs Will Gibson, Bob Rutledge, Will Shaw, Ken Muir, Geo. Jaynes, Fred Batchelor, Clarence Bartley, Grant Whittaker, Angus Whittaker, Stewart Muir and Andrew Hincks.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. John McWilliam, Mel. Hogarth, W. Hincks, J. Nichol, H. Tucker and J. Stauble.

Attending the funeral from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. Wallace MacDermid and two children, Mrs. Don Porter and son, Bryan of Toronto; Mr. Roy Ferguson and Miss Annie Mae Ferguson, Erin; Miss Florence Bracken, Mrs. W.J. Bracken, Caledon East; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Crockford, Dundalk; Mrs. R. H. Brett and Mr. Lindsay MacGuire, Toronto; Mr. Harold Baxter, Mr. John Baxter, Caledon; Mr. Peter A. Ferguson, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Watson, Holstein; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Watson, Varney; Mr. Will Watson and Mr. Thos. Watson, Durham.

Card of Thanks

The family of the late Mrs. James Knox wish to express to their many friends, neighbors and relatives, their heart-felt thanks and appreciation for acts of kindness and messages of sympathy in their recent bereavement.
