Acton native happy to return after North American tour

Canadian singer/songwriter, Darrelle London, will be performing at the River Run Centre in Guelph on January 25, at 8 p.m.

London grew up on a hobby farm in Acton, and feels a connection to the local music scene.

London has toured North America, with stops at Lilith Fair, Canadian Music Week, Hollywood's legendary Troubadour Club, and over 35 colleges and universities. She is now touring in support of her release, Eat A Peach (Bandwidth/EMI) which features 12 original piano-pop tunes. London was honoured to have the opportunity to write three songs for Eat A Peach with one of her idols, Chantal Kreviazuk.

Kreviazuk says, "she (London) sings from her heart, and her gentle, unique approach to music is so special, it is a pleasure to be immersed in."

London's radio single, Fine, earned her the title of Bell Media Emerging Artist (May 2012).

Tickets for the River Run concert are available at www.riverrun.ca or 519-763-3000. Follow her on www.darrellelondon.com
