VICTORIA CORNERS

Miss Kathleen Bannon, T.C.A. stewardess, stationed at Vancouver, arrived in Toronto at midnight on Monday. Her father, Mr. Milton Bannon, motored to Toronto Tuesday to bring Kaye to her parental home, when she will assist in the care of her mother. We are glad to say that on Thursday afternoon Mrs. Bannon was brought home from Markdale Hospital, being a patient there for the past four weeks.

Another of the sick, Mrs. Gordon Acheson, was able to return to her home Monday afternoon. For these two ladies we wish a rapid recovery to good health.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Copeland were recent week end visitors with Toronto friends.

Mrs. Elvin Moore had the misfortune to sprain her ankle when alighting from a sleigh in which she had been riding. She had the injured member strapped by her physician and is able to go about once more.

The high wind and storm Thursday night left comparatively little damage in our community. Driving conditions became very hazardous. Jack and Fred Bannon were compelled to remain overnight at a point north of here, while our editor and wife had to abandon their car and seek shelter in a farm home down the road. The latter couple breakfasted in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Art Jackson.

Mr. Neil Winters is the proud possessor of twin heifer calves, which arrived in his stable one day last week.

Mr. Sam Saunders of Chatsworth was a caller Saturday on Mr. and Mrs. George Moore.

FARM IMPROVEMENT LOANS DURING 1947

Ontario farmers borrowed $725,855.00 through 475 loans under the provisions of the Farm Improvement Loans Act during 1947 for the purpose of construction or repairs to farm buildings. Loaning for the construction of a new farm home or utility building or the carrying out of repairs, alterations and additions to existing buildings was 7.11% greater in Ontario during 1947 than in the previous year. Ontario leads all other provinces for 1947 with the amount borrowed by its farmers for this purpose.

More And More Money

The market can stand much more butter than is being produced. The price is good. Add to your milk-producing herd and profit by it.

Poultry

We have a good market for poultry. By culling out your non-laying hens, you will save feed. We pay a good price for hens and chickens, and custom-kill.

Extra Creamery Service

On account of the highways being bare, you can phone us and our truck will meet you at the highway to pick up your cream, eggs and poultry.

The creamery will be closed Saturday nights until further notice.
