Dundalk Wins Trophy In Semi-Pro. Hockey League

Paced by Reg. Inkster, the Dundalk club won the Semi-Pro. League championship and the McDougall by defeating the Proton Bears in the Flesherton arena 8-0. Dundalk previously had won two, then Proton took the game in Dundalk Saturday night 9-8. Inkster scored seven of his team's goals, Don Perkins counting the first one in the first period. Proton put up a plucky fight but were no match for Dundalk on the night's play. Dundalk were deadly close in on the net, while Henry gave a real demonstration of net minding, especially in the last period, when Proton peppered him with shots.

The capture of the McDougall trophy gives Dundalk two honors in hockey this year the seniors having taken the Callaghan trophy in the Central Ontario League. With the softball trophy of last summer, Dundalk sportsmen are now well supplied with "mugs." We can assure them that other teams will do their best to take them away, but may the best team win, as they have done in the above cases.

Dundalk—Goal, Henry; def., Wellwood, D. Goheen; centre, Stafford; wings, Perkins, Haw; alternates, Aitcheson, Inkster, Ritz, Duncan, J. Goheen, Smith.

Proton — Goal, Blackburn; def., Marshall, Shaw; centre, White; wings Lyons, Bates; alternates, Acheson, McCauley, French, Haw, Allen.

Referee—Bob Phillips, Flesherton.

"Didn't Have A Chance"

Little Jimmy was hit by a car the other day. One moment he was playing gaily on the road the next he was lying quite still.

The driver who hit him said he didn't have a chance to avoid the child. He didn't think that the little fellow, romping with his pals on the left side of the road, would scamper the entire width of the road at the sound of his horn. But he did.

This man, a father himself, simply does not understand children. Otherwise, he would not have manoeuvered his car into a position which made it impossible to prevent the accident. He would have known that child's actions are unpredictable and he would have kept his car under control at a safe distance until he was certain it was safe to proceed. This would have cost him a few extra seconds. The time he tried to save cost Jimmy his life.

Safety experts point out that children are carefree, rather than careless. They naturally look to adults to look out for them. A child is a poor judge of speed and distance, and his thoughts rarely take into consideration his own danger. When he is intent at his games he resents the intrusion of the motorist, who rouses him from his world of imagination to one fraught with danger. It is hard for him to react safely in that split second which the motorists allows him.

Responsibility for children's safety is largely the driver's. His proper use of care, caution and common sense will never put him into the position of saying, "I didn't have a chance to avoid him."

AVERAGE VALUE OF FARM LAND IS $35 PER ACRE

Average value of occupied farm land in Canada for 1947 was $35 an acre, an increase of nine percent over the average value indicated in 1946 and 40 percent more than in 1939, the Bureau of Statistics reported. Reflecting the relative increases in farm produce prices, the average includes both cultivated and unimproved land. The bureau's index of farm prices of agricultural products for 1947 was 95.5 percent above the 1935-1939 level, while for the same year the index of prices of commodities and services used by farmers advanced 57.4 percent from the 1935-1939 base-period level.

HORNE—TAYLOR

A quiet wedding took place at the Parsonage, Parkdale United Church, Toronto, on Saturday, March 20th, when the Rev. Keith MacMillan united in a double ring ceremony Muriel Arlene, youngest daughter of Mr. Frank Taylor and the late Mrs. Taylor, to Raymond Peter, only son of Mrs. Horn and the late Mr. Horn of Toronto. The young couple will reside in Toronto.

Damaging Floods Caused By Tree Cutting Policy

The floods from melting snows and rains which caused millions of dollars of damage throughout Western Ontario and around Toronto during the past couple of weeks, have been due, primarily, to the stupidity of man in cutting down the swamps and bush on waste lands and not replacing with younger stock. The swamps and bush lands hold back the melting snow and spring rains and allow it to gradually escape. This in turn allows more water to enter the ground, resulting in our water supply in our wells being sure the year-round.

A large dam was erected at Belwood, near Fergus, and the Grand River held back near its source, and the surface water was kept from flooding the large cities further down stream. Even at that the water from other tributaries caused severe damage. Another large works to hold back the water of the Conestoga River, in the Grand River system, will keep more water back in the spring floods. But to get back to the source of the trouble it will be found that the denuding of the land of its forest growth is the main cause of the floods. Another cause was the interlacing of square miles of our province with drainage canals to run off the surplus water and allow more land to come under cultivation. The problem is province wide and can only be tackled by jointly by the provincial and municipal governments if a solution to the problem is to be found, and then it cames back to the individual farmer or landowner who is denuding his land of the trees.

Funeral of Jos. Badgerow Largely Attended

The funeral of the late Mr. Joseph Oliver Badgerow, who died at his home at Saugeen Junction on Mon., March 22nd, was held on Wednesday afternoon of last week. Rev. A. G. Macpherson conducted the service at his late residence. Mr. Earl Bray of Proton Station sang "I Won't Have to Cross Jordan Alone." The service was attended by a large number of neighbors and other friends. Interment was made in Flesherton Cemetery Chapel.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. C. Hindle, Earl Best, Thos. Watson, S. Batchelor, Jos. Park and Robt. White.

Among those attending the funeral from a distance were: S. Badgerow and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Angus Kennedy, Hamilton; Geo. Williams, Gordon Williams, Gordon Badgerow and Mrs. A. McGlashen, Toronto.

The late Mr. Badgerow was born February 1st, 1860, on the 4th Line, Artemesia, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Badgerow, pioneers of Artemesia, and grew to manhood in the Portlaw district. He was married to Eliza Colgan, who died about twelve years after their marriage. Later he married Maria E. Park, who predeceased him by 17 years. He was highly regarded by a host of friends, always obliging and was a good neighbor in every sense of the word. In earlier years he was a member of the Orange Order. Mr. Badgerow had enjoyed perfect health all his life and was able to read the newspapers without aids and was interested in events of the day. This winter he commenced to fail in his health and was only bedfast five days prior to his death.

He leaves to mourn three children from the first marriage: Samuel of Hamilton, Lida (Mrs. Myles) in the West, and Maggie (Mrs. Kennedy) of Hamilton; three sons from the second marriage: Bert, Art and Ed. Badgerow of Saugeen Jct., also two stepdaughters, Mrs. A. McGlashen of Toronto and Mrs. Chas. Jackson of Winnipeg. He also leaves three brothers and two sisters: Gordon of Toronto, Anson of Port Huron, Mich and Herbert of Carnduff, Sask., and two sisters, Mrs. Robt. McIntyre of McIntyre and Mrs. Alice Mooney of Strathroy.

A girl and a boy were so madly in love that when fate separated them, the boy telegraphed messages of his devotion each morning. Every day for a year the same messenger boy knocked at the girl's door, bearing the messages of unding love.

At the end of the year, the girl and the messenger boy were married.

Fur Coats Were Worn As Easter Raiment

One of the worst blizzards of the year struck this district Saturday night and covered the ground with a blanket of snow. Snow plows were required to clear the highways for motor traffic. The weather was too cold for the wearing of Easter finery by the ladies and fur coats were predominant. Rain had commenced falling Good Friday afternoon and the fine weather of the week previous came to an end, and by Saturday morning the roads and streets were coated with ice.

Peaceful be thy rest, dear parents,
Safe from weariness and pain;
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.

—Son and Daughters.
