VANDELEUR

(Intended for Last Week)

The Farm Forum wound up its activities for the winter series with a fowl supper for the members in the Community Hall on Thursday evening, March 25th, and it was certainly a bountiful repast. About 60 sat down to the tables, which were literally heaped with good things. There was chicken galore and all the in-between things were followed by pie and ice cream. The balance of the evening was spent in progressive crokinole and cards, followed by a brief square dance. The prize winners were: crokinole, Marie Johnston and M. Buchanan; cards, Mrs. Ormsby and Alex. Gilray. It was a happy ending to a most successful season and the officers wish to thank all those who contributed to the success.

The March meeting of the W. I. was held at the Community Hall, with a fairly good attendance. Mrs. Dane McGee, second vice-president, presided. The roll call was responded to by a simple recipe for happiness that actually work. The motto "Education begins in the home," was explained by Mrs. Will Johnston. Mrs. Lundy Johnston, as Citizenship convener, was in charge of the program, consisting of several readings and a musical contest. The County Health questionaire was read and report filled in and sent to the W. I. Federation of Agriculture representative. Group one reported sending a box of food to the adopted overseas family. Group two reported they were to send a box early in April. There was discussion re the garden brigade and special W. I. meetings at Flesherton and Rocklyn on April 14th and 15th.
