Howard McCauley Opened Speaking Tour Monday

H. A. McCauley, Progressive Conservative candidate in South Grey, opened his speaking tour in his home town of Flesherton Monday evening, when Hon. Thos. L. Kennedy, Minister of Agriculture, was the chief speaker. and he gave a splendid address on the work of the Government and especially his own department, in which he is regarded without a peer by friend and foe alike. Mr. McCauley also gave a pleasing address to the crowded auditorium of the town hall.

Mrs. F. D. Sawyer of Markdale presented a petition to Col. Kennedy from the women's organizations of centre Grey requesting that the government give substantial assistance in the purchase of the private hospital owned by Dr. Carefoot of Markdale, which is in danger of being closed, stressing the good work being done by the hospital in the district. Kennedy's and Mr. McCauley's addresses.

South Grey voters are having a choice between four candidates in the election on June 7th. Last week two new candidates were announced, one of them being Mrs. Alice Katool, C.C.F., who was in the last election in South Grey, and Arnold Russell of Hanover as the Social Credit candidate. Besides these two are F. R. Oliver, Liberal leader and Howard McCauley as Conservative representative. With the entry of these two candidates it looks as if there will be an interesting situation developing in South Grey. If the two new candidates remain in the running on election day, it will be the first time in many years that the electors will have had such a wide choice.

BATCHELOR — HINDLE

On Tuesday, May 18th, 1948, at high noon, a very pretty spring wedding was held at the bride's home, near Saugeent Junction, when Shirley Ileen Hindle, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cephas Hindle, became the bride of Mr. Frederick Elmer Batchelor, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Batchelor, also of Saugeen Junction. Rev. A. G. Macpherson of Flesherton officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride took her place beneath an arch of pink and white streamers, and wore a white nylon chiffon street-length dress, trimmed with rhinestones and sequins, with embroidered veil, attached to a head-dress of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of pink and white roses. The bride was attended by her sister, Jean, dressed in an orchid pink nylon chigon, trimmed with rhinestones and sequins, with a shoulder veil and head-dress of pink flowers. The groom was attended by his brother, Ernest Batchelor. The groom's gift to the bride was a cabinet of silverware (service of twelve), to the bridesmaid and organist, ship radio ornaments; to the best man a Gillette razor. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Bartley Farr of Woodbridge, sister of the groom.

The bride's mother wore a mauve and white jersey, with a red corsage, while the groom's mother wore a printed crepe dress with a red corsage. The bride's table was centred with a three-tier wedding cake, with silver trimmings, miniature bride and groom and silver candles. Oliver the Man

Twenty-odd years ago a lad of 22 was the youngest member ever elected to Ontario's Legislature. He is still there, and today he is asking ing you to send him back for his seventh consecutive term — this time as Premier of a Liberal Government.

That man is Farquhar Oliver, who has come far from his Grey County ancestral farm — which he still successfully operates — to the leadership of the Liberal Party of Ontario.

During the past two decades,, Farquhar Oliver has widened his horizon in public life. His years of public service have given him a thorough grasp of provincial problems. Yet he still has the vigour of youth, mellowed by mature, experienced wisdom.

His career has been marked by action — no windy words or empty promises for him! As Minister of Public Welfare and Public Works, he helped provide medical and financial aid for the needy and the less privileged. He supported Liberal collective bargaining for labour, and Liberal subsidies for farmers. He successfully negotiated with Ottawa — and will do so again.

These are his assets: honesty, sincerity, reliability, experience, capability, hard work — and freedom from any dictator complex.

Such qualities are what Ontario needs. They will enable Farquhar Oliver to plan and work constructively for all, for a greater Ontario.
