

Town fifth on MoneySense list

MoneySense magazine has ranked Halton Hills #5 as one of the Top 10 Small Cities in its 8th annual list of Best Places to Live in Canada.

The magazine lists Halton Hills' assets: average household income, $116,251; average home value, $458,024; days above 0C, 193 and unemployment, 4.16%.

"Quality of life isn't only about practical concerns," stated MoneySense staff. "The ability to take part in cultural activities adds richness to our lives, so we gave points to communities with high numbers of people working in the arts or sports. Of course, statistics don't capture the personality, scenery or people that make each place special, but they provide a good idea of what life would be like if you lived there."

Ahead of Halton Hills on the top 10 Small Cities list were St. Albert, Alberta (1), Strathcona County, Alberta (2), Lacombe, Alberta (3) and Newmarket, Ontario (4).

The magazine also lists Burlington and Oakville 1 and 2 as Top 10 Mid-Sized Cities, Burlington (4) as Best Places to Reitre, and Burlington (1) as Best Places for New Immigrants.
