It depends on whether you're walking or driving which you hate—pedestrians or autoists.

It taketh age to make a sage,
The wise no longer doubt it;
The older we grow the more we know
And the less we brag about it.

F. R. Oliver Given His Largest Majority

With the greatest majority he has ever had, Farquhar R. Oliver, Liberal leader, swept South Grey in the Ontario elections on Monday. It was a real vote of confidence that the people gave him after his 22 years as the member for this constituency. His main opponent was Howard A. McCauley, who was making his second contest for the Progresisve Conservatives. Mrs. Alice Katool, C.C.F., and Arnold Russell, Social Credit, were well back in the race Oliver's candidates throughout Ontario were not so fortunate, as they only gained one seat in the House, making 12 members who will sit in the new Legisature. Premier Drew's Government was returned to power with 53 members, and the official opposition will now be the C.C.F. with 22 members and others three. Premier Drew lost out in High Park riding to the C.C.F., which almost swept Tory Toronto. E. B. Joliffe, C.C.F. leader was elected in South York.

In South Grey Mr. McCauley had majorities in three municialities, Flesherton, his home town, with a majority of 17, Holland with 32 and Euphrasia with 16. His majority in Flesherton was surprisingly low and many think that the people of the village were remiss in their duty in not giving him a substantial vote.

Miss Agnes Macphail was successful in East York and will be the only women member in the Legislature. W. J. Grummett again won Cochrane South. He is an old Wareham boy. John MacVicar, formerly of Priceville, and running on the Liberal ticket in Toronto, was last in a field of three.

Following are the returns as compiled Monday night to the best of our ability. The candidates were: Mrs. Alice Katool, C.C.F; H. A. McCauley, Progressive Conservative; F. R. Oliver, Liberal; Arnold Russell, Social Credit.

An old coloured man was complaining about the railroad refusing to pay for his mule which had been killed by a train.

"Dey won't pay for mah mule. Dey won't even gimme back mah rope.

"What rope?" he was asked.

"Why, sah," he replied, "de rope ah done use to tie de mule on de track."

Vandeleur Ground Hog Shot Wtihout A Tail

(By Vandeleur Reporter)

Should "tails" only be considered or should "tabs" also be counted in deciding the score in the ground hog hunt, is now a debateable question. One day recently Howard Graham shot a ground hog that didn't have either. If the animal ever had a tail there was on evidence of it, not even a scar. Now, the question is, was it born that way, did it meet with an accident, or was it an amputation case from a previous war? If so, is the enemy so hard pressed that they have to use these kind of troops, or are they just adopting modern tactics of removing their valuables to a place of safety for the duration. In any case, it is an interesting "tale" and Howard thinks it should be counted.

'Small Advt.' Users In The Advance Achieve Results

That many people derive real benefit from using The Advance "Small Advts." was evidenced by two cases which are a few of the many satisfied users. Mr. Geo. Moore of Victoria Corners had two cows for sale and disposed of them the day following tthe publication of the paper, and also sold two other cows from the same buyer. Robt. Thompson had a steer strayed last week and on Friday knew of its whereabouts There are only two cases of satisfied users. The "Small Advts." are read by everybody and you are assured of a large audience through the medium of The Advance.

McIntyre - Mather

Spirea, honeysuckles, white lilacs and tulips formed the setting for a quiet but pretty wedding in Bervie United Church on Saturady, June 5th, at 2 o'clock, at which Rev. Chas. D. Cox officiated, when Dorothy Jean, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mather of Priceville, became the bride of Robert Alexander McIntyre, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman McIntyre of Glenelg.

The bride wore a gown of heavenly blue crepe, street length, trimmed with brilliant nail heads. She was attended by Miss Lavina Stevens of Proton Station, who wore a gown of pink silk jersey, street length, with white accessories. Thomas Mather, brother of the bride, was best man.

Immediately following the ceremony and signing the register, a wedding dinner was served at the Manse. The groom's gift to the bride was a double string of pearls; to the bridesmaid, a Chatelaine pin, and to the best man, a gold tie clip.

The young couple left on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Toronto, the bride travelling in a pale green and black figured dress, with blue coat and hat and white accessories. On their return the young couple will reside on the groom's farm at Priceville.

VALLEY ROAD SOUTH

Mr. and Mrs. Royden McDonald and son, Donald, returned to their home in the north, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Wickens, who are spending a month vacation with them at Ear Falls.

We are sorry to report Miss Bonita Ward on the sick list. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Wally Fawcett spent Friday in the Dundalk district visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Shortt and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Merle Weber.

Prominent Citizen, S. W. Sloan, Died Last Week

Mr. S. Walker Sloan, a native of Eugenia, and for the past seven years a resident of Flesherton, passed away at his home on Thursday, June 3rd in his 80th year. He had been in poor health for the past several years, but was able to be around until the week prior to his death.

The late Mr. Sloan was the last surviving member of the family of the late Jacob and Margaret Sloan and was born at Eugenia, where he spent the greater part of his life. He was married to Margaret Gorley of Eugenia and would have celebrated with Mrs. Sloan their 57th anniversary this July 1st. He owned a sawmill at Eugenia for a number of years and was an expert on scroll work and other ornaments for buildings, so common some years ago. He resided at Mt. Albert for some years, where he conducted a store and for a number of years was employed by the C.N.R. Following his retirement he lived for a time at Eugenia and moved to Flesherton seven years ago and conducted a wood-working shop near his home, where he turned out many fine ornaments for the home that were both useful and ornamental. He enjoyed his hobby, which was also a remunerative one. He was of a quiet disposition, real read on various subjects and it was always a pleasure to converse with him. He was highly regarded by all with whom he came in contact.

Surviving to mourn are his wife, one son, Albert, of Chatham, two daughters, Leila (Mrs. Kimmerly) of Toronto and Donalda (Mrs. Leslie Ferris) of Windsor, 11 grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon, with service at his late residence, conducted by Rev. A. G. Macpherson, pastor of St. John's United Church. Interment was made in Flesherton Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. A. B. Ferris, Frank Thibaudeau, F. W. Duncan, C. J. Bellamy, Ernie Proctor and Russell Park.

The flower bearers were: Art Proctor, Harry Voice, Ronald and Ross Kimmerly.

Among those, besides the immediate family, who attended the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Voice, Watertown, N.Y.; Mrs. D. Emans, Chatham; Ross Kimmerly, Ottawa; Ronald Kimmerly, Torono; Robert Miller and Miss Charlotte Miller, Shelburne; Wm. Heath, Mr. and Mrs. Will Gregory, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hill, Markdale; and Mr. Edgar Gorley and daughter of Kimberley.

Adjusting Ourselves to Facts

We are living in a time of great changes, and some of them are not al all pleasant to face, yet it is useless to grumble and lament the decadence of our day, for, no matter how loudly we lament, the world will not change its ways to satisfy us. We had better adjust ourselves to the change of the day, and learn to make the best of it. We can't go back to tallow candles, no matter how much we may wish. We do not refer to evils which creep into society, and against which we should always war, but refer to changes which have little moral significance, yet which reach our lives and affect them powerfully. We think that the wise man should learn to adjust his sails to the wind, rather than to hope and pray for the wind to adjust itself to his sails. This is our age; let us make the very best of it.—Onward.

CARDS OF THANKS

Mrs. S. W. Sloan and family wish to extend their sincere thanks to their friends and relatives for their kindness in every way during the illness and since the death of their dear husband and father, also Rev. A. G. Macpherson and Prince Arthur Lodge, No. 333, A.F.&A.M.

I desire to thank all my friends and neighbors for treats, cards and letters received while I was in hospital, and since my return home, also for the many kind inquiries.
—Mrs. Bert Magee.

"Sam, doesn't that mule ever kick you?"

"No sah, he ain't nevah done kicked me yit, but he done kick often wheah ah recently was."
