DUNDALK

A young man at college sent his laundry home, and when his mother opened it she nearly wept—his handkerchiefs were all tinged with lipstick.

"Oh, Mother, be sensible," her daughter commiserated; "you couldn't expect him to go forever without having a girl.'

"I know," fretted the mother, "but look, there's a different colour on every handkerchief."

BY-LAW NO. 1, POLICE VILLAGE OF PRICEVILLE

Prohibiting Stock (Horses, Cattle, Sheep and Swine) from Running at Large Without a Guardian in the Village of Priceville

Be it enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the Police Trustees of the Village of Priceville, in the County of Grey, as follows:

(1) That whereas the running of stock, such as horse, cattle, sheep and swine, on the streets of the said Village of Priceville has been deemed a public nuisance:

(2) Therefore it is hereby enacted that from the passing of this By-law, all animals shall be prohibited from running at large, and for every such case of violatioin or breach of the said By-law, it shall be expedient for the Police Trustees' Constable to take any such animal or animals and impound them, after which the owners of the said animals will be legally prosecuted.

(3) That this By-law shall come into effect fromand after the passing thereof.

Passed in Board assembled this Twenty-seventh day of May, A.D. 1908.

PETER McARTHUR,
JOHN STOTHART,
HERMAN B. McLEAN,
Police Trustees of the Village of Priceville.

Your Trustees hold their meeting on the Fourth Monday of each month. All property owners are invited to attend.

To the Electors of South Grey

My heartfelt thanks to all who contributed in any way to the magnificent support afforded we at the polls on Monday.

I will work to merit this confidence.
