Boy And Dog Bring Home Tail; Nine Hogs Shot In Less Than 30 Minutes

(By Vandeleur Reporter)

Barry, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Gilray, was the proud boy in the community one day last week when he came to the house carrying a ground hog tail. He and his dog had been romping in a nearby field when the dog made the kill. Barry removed the tail like a veteran and presented it to his father, who is a sub-captain of one of the teams. The same young gentleman presented our better half with a cup of wild strawberries a week ago, which he had picked. On election day his mother asked him whom he was going to vote for and he named your correspondent, so we are just about as proud as Barry.

Mr. Lorne Ormsby shot nine ground hogs on his farm recently in less than 30 minutes. Mr. Jack Hill secured five tails to his credit when he came upon a nest while removing a pile of wood. All of which may, or may not, be a record of some kind. We may have other tales to tell when the tails are counted at the Community Day on June 22. The decision of the judges will be a feature of the program.

Black Knights Confer Degrees At Feversham

An eventful night in the history of Feversham Royal Black Preceptory, No. 343, was held on Wednesday, June 9th, when Sir Knights of the counties of Grey and Bruce gathered for degree work, when 20 candidates received the Red Cross Degree in the Black Order of Ireland, ably conferred by the Dundalk degree team, and with the lantern slides, was very impressive. Sir Knight W. J. Miller of Bognor, Past Grand Master of Ontario West, expressed his views that the work was exceedingly well given. Seventy-Sir Knights were registered, with members from the following places: Chesley 8, Tobermory 14, Owen Sound 10, Meaford 9, Durham 3, Dundalk 16, Feversham 13.

Following the degree work and business of the meeting, a banquet was provided by the Presbyterian Laides' Aid of Feversham, and on motion of a Sir Knight from Tara and seconded by Sir Knight Bronscomb of Chesley the ladies were given a hearty vote of thanks for the splendid repast.

Union School Section At Victoria Corners

An application from residents of S. S. No. 4, Artemesia, and nearby properties at Victoria Corners to the Artemesia Township Council to make a union school section, was handed over to an arbitration board, consisting of Roy W. Piper of Ceylon and Inspector W. G. Rae. The final meeting was held last week and the arbitration board has given its decision. Lots 191, 192, 193, 1 S. W. Township of Proton, formerly in the U.S.S. No. 15, A. and P., will be transferred to be a part, together with the school section known as S. S. No. 4, Artemesia, to be known as Union School Section No. 4, A. and P. The above named lots in Proton will still be liable for their share of debentures on the new school for U.S.S. No. 15, A. and P., until the loan is repaid in full. That the terms of this award shall become effective on Dec. 25th, 1948.

The application was made to the Council, as these lands are adjacent to the Victoria Corners school and pupils from these homes were attending this school, in preference to the Proton Station school, which was a mile and a half distant.

Old Ceylon Resident Passes

One of Artemesia's better known citizens, Sangster Hrmphill, passed away at his home at Ceylon Thursday afternoon, June 10th, following a lengthy illness. He was in his 82nd year.

Deceased was the last surviving member of the family of the late James and Margaret Hemphill and was born at Mt. Zion in 1866. As a young man he learned the blacksmithing trade at Ravenna. He moved to Ceylon in 1890 and married Isabelle McKenzie, who predeceased him by 28 years. The late Mr. Hemphill took a great interest in church work and was a member of the Gospel Workers' church at Feversham.

Surviving to mourn are three daughters: Maud, at home; Myrtle (Mrs. Chas. Irish), Toronto; Reta (Mrs. Emerson Wright), Feversham; and one son, Percy, of Ceylon. Another son, John, predeceased him in July, 1923.

The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon, with service at his late residence, conducted by Rev. C. Bell, and assisted by Rev. F. Dean, a former minister. By special request Mrs. C. Bell sang "The Last Mile of the Way." The casket was banked with many beautiful flowers.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. R. Rutledge, A. E. Goessel, J. S. McDermid, G. E. Jaynes, Angus Whittaker and M. T. Hogarth.

The flower bearers were eight grandchildren, Isabelle, Fred, Bruce and Norman Irish, Ruth and Leonard Hemphill, Stanley and Shirley Wright.

Relatives and friends attended the funeral from, Woodbridge, Collingwood, Wiarton, Berkeley, Clarksburg King, Maple, Thornhill, Schomberg, Toronto, Long Branch, and district points.

In Memoriam

HEATHCOTE — In memory of a dear wife and mother, Mary Heathcote, who passed away June 20, 1946.

It is not at the time the tears are shed
That tell of a heart that is torn,
But the lonely tears of the after years
And remembrance silently borne
Surrounded by friends we are lonesome.
In the middle of our joys we are blue,
With a smile on our face our hearts are broken.
Longing, dear mother, for you.

—Sadly missed by her Husband, Harry, and Daughter, Annie (Mrs. Dtson).

Fox Pup Caught With Hands Makes Fine Pet

A young red fox running about his farm home, is the high-light on the farm of Mr. Clare Davis, east backline, Artemesia. The fox was caught on a neighboring farm when it, and another little one, were seen playing around their den. Mr. Davis lay down beside the hole and waited until the fox pup poked its head up to see what was going on and it was immediately grabbed by the head and made prisoner. At first the pup snarled and was not a bit friendly, but with kind treatment it has become quite tame and will follow the children about the farm. When it wishes to enter the housei t will sit at the door and bark. A surprising thing is that within 24 hours after the fox was taken home it had forgotten its wild ways and would allow the children to pick it up and pet it. We did not know that a fox would tame as easily. The animal is quite an oddity for a pet and is the envy of the neighboring youngsters. John Davis, 6-year-old son of Reeve J. A. Davis, wants his father to get him a fox pup, too.

Card of Thanks

The family of the late S. Hemphill wish to take this means of personally thanking all friends for their many acts of kindness tendered in many ways during the illness of their father and in their bereavement.
