VICTORIA CORNERS

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Moore and Mr and Mrs. Walter Acheson on Friday attended the wedding in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Kitchener, of Alma Lorraine Atkinson, elder daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Carl Atkinson of this community, and Mr. John Alexander Purdon. The reception was held at The Pines at Bridgeport.

Friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Trask, Proton Station, met in the hall Friday evening to spend a social time before departure to their new home in Owen Sound, having disposed of their store and dwelling to Messrs. Lloyd and Joe Little. At an opportune time during the evening, Mrs. Gilbert McCannell read an address of good wishes and Bill Batchelor presented them with a purse of money. We regret losing the Trasks from the community, as they have served the public for the past three years. With their removal we now extend the hand of welcome to the Little brothers, their wives and families.

This Monday and Tuesday our Entrance pupils, Wilma Stevens and Bob Nicholls are writing papers at Flesherton High School. Good luck to you both. Though late in mentioning the fact, we offer congratulations to Gladys Love and Sheila Forbes who finished their 2nd and 1st year, respectively, high school terms on their year's standing.

The "Achesons" of this community joined the Acheson clan in Dundalk Community Park Saturday afternoon when close to the 200 mark was reached in the registration of persons present.

Miss Marie Cooke, Toronto attended the reunion and visited the balance of the week end with her sister, Mrs. Walter Acheson.

Congratulations and best wishes are in store for Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bannon, who celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary on Friday, June 25th. Also to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Acheson of Bethel celebrating their 30th wedding anniversary on Sunday, June 27th, with a reception in their home Sunday evening, at which some from here were in attendance.

(Intended for Last Week)

Tinkle! Tinkle! Wedding bells!

Mrs. Albert Stinson enjoyed the company of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Coon, Billie and Bobby of Acton, during the week-end.

The ladies of Inistioge had a house-cleaning "bee' at the church on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Walter Allen, Toronto, was a week end guest of her sister, Mrs. Walter Acheson, and niece, Mrs. Geo. Moore. Her daughter, Verna, visited with her friend, Florence Batchelor.

We are sorry to report Mrs. A. E. Walker requiring medical aid, due to a heart and nerve condition.

What you don't know hurts you most when you try to tell it.
