Tuesday afternoon the teacher, Miss Marjorie Stevens, and pupils of S. S. No. 4, Artemesia, entertained the parents and pre-school children of the section, as well as the Maple Grove teacher, Mrs. Hill, and pupils. There were contests for the ladies, races for the little children, a ball game for the older pupils, social chat for the older ones and, in short, a good time for all. Maple Grove proved victorious in the ball game. With the pupils grouped around, Miss Stevens, who has accepted a position on the teaching staff of Durham Public School, was given a chair of honor, while Wilma Stevens read an address and Irene Duncan made the presentation of a parting gift of two cornflower-patterned cut glass candlesticks and three lace doilies. Miss Stevens made a very fitting reply, after which a bounteous lunch was served to all.
