Genoe Family Feted On Leaving Eugenia Home

(By Eugenia Reporter)

Monday evening, July 26th, the many friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Genoe and family met in their honor at the hall to spend a few social hours with them before their departure to their new home at Bracebridge. During the course of the evening an address was read to the family by Mrs. E. Breadner, while a presentation of a coffee percolator and an electric tea kettle was made by Misses Eleanor Proctor and Alice Tudor, on behalf of the community. Both Mr. and Mrs. Genoe made neat replies, thanking all for the gifts, which they greatly appreciated. Mr. and Mrs. Genoe and Diane left Wednesday for their new home. They will be greatly missed in this locality. Yvonne remained for awhile with her sister, Mrs. Jack McDonald, at Flesherton.

It's more pleasant when the low-down on people is high praise.

Mr. And Ms. Isaac Smith Observe 55th Anniversary

Another milestone in life has been enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Smith of town, when they celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary with all members of the family at home, with the exception of Edwin of London. The gathering took the form of a picnic in the Hydro Park, Eugenia. Both Mr. and Mrs. Smith are enjoying excellent health at present. Mrs. Smith is able to do her own housework and Mr. Smith is only awaiting the time when he can get out again next winter with his hounds and take after the elusive fox. Our congratulations are extended to this worthy couple.

Flesherton Leads South Line In League Playoffs

The semi-final games of the South Grey Softball League have been in progress during the past week, with Flesherton playing South Line and Dundalk playing Eugenia. Flesherton leads against South Line, having lost the first game 8-5, and winning the next games 7-3 and 6-3. The next game will be in Flesherton on Thursday evening. Dundalk won the first game from Eugenia 19-11 in the only game played so far. Dundalk plays in another league and has difficulty in arranging games.

Facilities for spectators to see the ball games in Flesherton have been greatly improved by the rection of two sections of bleachers along the third base line. Many more spectators can now be accommodated.

Meads - MacLachlan

A quiet but petty wedding was solemnized by Rev. Lawrence Mould at 2:30 o'clock p.m., on Saturday, July 31st, at the home of the bride near Priceville, when Marybelle Christena, daughter of Mrs. Mary MacLachlan and the late Angus MacLachlan, and Kenneth Ray, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Meads, were united in marriage. The livingroom was beautifully decorated with pink and white streamers, pink bows, white and silver bells and cut flowers.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Donald Black, looked lovely in a floor-length gown of white corded silk with gold trim, pearls adorning a sweetheart neckline. She wore a finger-tip veil held by an apple blossom headdress, white lace gloves and white sandals. She carried a crescent with sweet peas in garlands and gladioli flowerettes. The bridesmaid, Miss Emma Meads, sister of the groom, wore a floor-length gown of rose corded silk with matching shoulder-length veil. She wore pearls, rose gloves, white sandals, and carried a powder puff bouquet of orchid asters. The groom was attended by Allan MacLachlan, brother of the bride.

The reception was held at the the home of the bride, with the bride's mother receiving, wearing a mauve printed jersey dress with a corsage of sweet peas, and was assisted by the groom's mother, who wore a black crepe dress with sweet pea corsage. The table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake, made by the bride's mother, and decorated with a miniature bride and groom. Assisting at the tables were Misses Catherine and Alfreda MacLachlan, June Meads and Mrs. J. C. MacLachlan.

Amid showers of confetti and best wishes the young couple left for their wedding trip to Niagara and other points, the bride travelling in a gold printed silk dress, blue topcoat and brown accesso ies.

Friends were present from Stratford, Coboconk, Orillia, Toronto, Nobleton, Swinton Park, Hanover

WON BOWING GAMES

Messrs. G. A. MacTavish, H. W. Kernahan and H. A. McCauley have been having considerable success in bowling the past week or so. At the Elora Scotch doubles, with 60 rinks competing, they won third prize and a nest of tables. Howard McCauley, teamed with Cliff Henry of Durham, took the prize for ninth place. In a trebles competition at Hanover the three bowlers teamed up and took English wool blankets as second prize. At the district play-dow Howard and George won agains Walkerton and will meet Mt. Forest at Durham this Friday night.

Large Crowds Attended The Priceville Celebration On Civic Holiday

(By Priceville Reporter)

A large crowd assembled around the cenotaph on Sunday last, where a very impressive memorial service was held, honoring the gallant soldiers of the district who sacrificed their lives during the two last wars. Rev. A. J. Simpson of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church presided for the service which commenced at 2:30. The joint choirs of St. Andrew's and St. Columba churches led the singing. Hon. F. R. Oliver delivered a splendid address and Mr. John L. McKinnon of Saskatoon, Sask., read the names of the allen. Mrs. Jim Sturrock and Mrs. Garry Whyte placed the wreaths on the memorial, while Mrs. Hector McDonald of Durham raised the flag and Mr. Cooper of Durham sounded the Last Post, followed by a two-minute silence. Previous to the service the Durham Pipe Band paraded with the veterans from down town to the cenotaph.

A splendid celebration was held on Monday and reunion of the Old Boys and girls, bringing a large crowd to the events. A calithumpian parade was held in the forenoon and created much fun, followed by water sports at the river. Ranald MacMillan of Flesherton took first prize in the swimming race, Glen McLean of Toronto second and Norman Pierson of Durham third. Lloyd Wilton of Durham won the tub contest. Jas. Singleton of Toronto won the diving with Bob McMaster second and Glen McLean third. In walking the greasy pole contest Ranald MacMillan took first, Carman Whyte second and Glen McLean third.

The afternoon program at the school grounds was presided over by Mr. Archie MacCuaig and was very interesting. With him on the platform were several pioneers: Mrs. Pinkerton 97 past, Neil McLeod 99, Sandy Campbell 99, Mrs. Mary Ferguson of Swinton Park 86, Robt. Knox of Swinton Park, Jas. McLean, Mr. Weir, Mrs. Meyers, all over 80. Mrs. Pinkerton and Neil McLeod cut the ribbon over the welcome sign. The former was presented with a plaid rug and the latter with a white shirt and plaid tie. All the pioneers over 80 were presented with a fr native to Priceville.

Durham Pipe Band gave stirring Highland tunes several times during the afternoon. Miss Anna McVicar danced the Highland Fling and sword dance in her usual capable manner, as also did Miss Marion McLeod of London, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl McLeod. Short speeches were given by Agnes Macphail, Martin McLeod of Tilbury, Wm. McBride of Palgave, Geo. Banks of Flesherton, John L. McKinnon of Saskatoon. Mrs. Malcolm McLean conveyed greetings from the W.I. Step dances were enjoyed, given by Snowden McLeod, John McGraw, John McDonald of Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McDougall gave iolin and piano numbers.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Sutherland were requested to come to the platform and Mrs. Sutherland, who recently came out from Scotland, was given a welcome. Neil McLeod also sang a Gaelic song. Horseshoe pitching and meeting old friends kept everyone busy.

A softball game was played between Fergus and South Line, the latter winning 6-2. The booths were well patronized.

A dance was held in the hall in the evening to music b Sharpe's 6-piece orchestra. A short program was given with step dancing by John L. McDonald of Ottawa and his sister, Mrs. Alex. McLean, of Swinton Park, John McGraw, Robt. McIntyre The hall was packed to the doors.

A very enjoyable day was spent together. The president, Mr. Archie MacCuaig deserves much credit for all the work and time he spent to make the event successful, and also the committee, which worked so well and faithfully and did their work so well. Thanks to all.

Visited Former Home First Time In 35 Years; In West

Mr. and Mrs. Archie MacDonald and daughters, Mary and Alice, of Froude, Sask., have been visiting Mrs. MacDonald's sister, Mrs. Jas. Jamieson, and other relatives in this district. Mrs. MacDonald was the former Alice Gordon of Eugenia. It is 35 years since Mr. MacDonald last visited in this district and sees many changes, most of which have been for the better. He also misses misses many of the old familiar faces of that time. It was a pleasure for the better. It was a pleasure to have a talk with Mr. MacDonald. They have taken The Advance ever since they went West over forty years ago and regard it as their weekly letter from home. Mr. MacDonald is a violin player of ability and his music found great favor at the dances held in his ditrict years ago. He again took up his old place in a dance at Eugenia last week, which brought back many pleasant memories to him. Their friends wish Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald and family a pleaant trip back to their home.

Mr. And Mrs. D. W. Clinton Are Married 50 Years

The home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Clinton, Toronto, was the scene of a festive occasion, when they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Tuesday, July 13th. The happy couple were at home to their many friends and relatives during the afternoon and evening. Mrs. Clinton was the former Agnes Gamey of Maxwell. The family of two sons, Dean and Kendal, and two daughter, Irene (Mrs. J. Brotherton) and Eugenia (Mrs. P. Woodward) of Port Arthur, were all present, as were the three grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton were able to attend the Old Home Week a year ago. The Advance editor offers his congratulations to this highly regarded couple, along with their many friends in this district.
