Wm. T. Moore Passes

(By Victoria Corners Reporter)

The death of William Thomas Moore occurred a the home of his daughter, Mrs. Bert Hodgins, Proton Station, Friday afternoon, July 16. Mr. Moore had been in failing health for several years and the end was not unexepcted.

Born in Artemesia Township, Oct. 12th, 1873, on the farm now occupied by George Moore, William was the eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Moore. In 1904 he was married to Eva Gallaugher, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Gallaugher of Inistioge, who predeceased him by 27 years. With the exception of the past four years spent with his daughter, Mrs. Bert Hodgins, he farmed at Victoria Corners on the farm now occupied by Elwood Stevens. He attended Inistioge church.

Surviving are three daughters and one son: Vera, Mrs. Jack Batchelor, Bethel district; Emma, Mrs. Otto Lee, Badjeros; Beatrice, Mrs. Bert Hodgins, Proton; Elvin, Victoria Corners, also 11 grandchildren.

Two sisters, Mrs. Robt. Acheson, Proton Station, and Mrs. Claude Akins, Flesherton, and two brothers, Robert Moore, London, and Charles Moore, Torono, also survive. One sister, Mrs. Wm. Talbot, Inistioge, predeceased him by almost three years.

The funeral on Monday, July 19th at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Bert Hodgins, was largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. A. G. Macpherson of Flesherton United Church, who took his text from St. John's 14. Hymns used were favorites of the deceased, "What a Friend we have in Jesus," and "Abide With Me."

Interment was made in Flesherton Cemetery. Six neighbors acted as pallbearers: Geo. Ludlow, Wilfred Gallaugher, Ed. Stinson, Elwood Stevens, Chas. Hodgins and Alex. Sherson.

Among the many beautiful flowers were tokens of sympathy from: Proton Women's Institute and the neighbors, and were carried by Russell and Gordon Acheson, Harry Akins, George Moore, Earl Talbot, Harry Montgomery, Emerson Gallaugher, Art Blair and L. Hodgins.

Friends and relatives from a distance included: Robt. Moore, London; Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Nicholls, St. Thomas; Mr. and Mr. Chas. Moore, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. H. Gallaugher, Horning's Mills; Mr. and Mrs Art Blair, Grand Valley; Mr. and Mrs. John Talbot, Tottenham; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Talbot, Mitchell; Mrs. Dave Talbot, Waterdown; Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Hodgins, Mrs. Jos. Stainsby, Mrs. Wm. Dingwall, Owen Sound; Mr. and Mrs. Wes Dever, Markdale.

Wm. D. Campbell Died Suddenly At Eugenia

(By Eugenia Reporter)

This neighborhood and surrounding district were ast in deep gloom by the sudden passing of one of our highly respected citizens, Mr. William Duncan Campbell, in his 65th year. His death occurred early Tuesday morning, July 27th, while attending the farewell party for the Genoe family.

The late W. D. Campbell was born in Eugenia and was the son of the late Robert and Eliza Campbell. He spent his boyhood days in this community and for many years he was superintendant of the freight sheds of the C.N.R. at Toronto. Retiring two years ago, he and Mrs. Campbell came to Eugenia to reside. He was a kind neighbor and friend, always helping in any good cause. He was a member of the United Church and also of the Masonic and Oddfellow Lodges. He took part in World War I and served overseas with a Highland Regiment, and was a member of the Flesherton Branch of the Canadian Legion.

The funeral was held on Thursday, July 29th and was largely attended. Service was conducted in the United Church, where his pastor, Rev. A. G. Macpherson, brought forth a very comforting message, speaking highly of the deceased. His message mas based on "I have fought a good fight." Hymns used were "Abide With Me" and "Rock of Ages." The choir rendered "Face to Face."

The floral tributes were many and beautiful, and were from, his wife, Eugenia friends and neighbors, the sister and brothers, Prince Arthur Lodge, No. 333, A.F.&A.M., etc.

Interment was made in Flesherton Cemetery, where beautiful services were conducted by the Masonic brethren and the Legion. The pallbearers were: Messrs. F. Cairns, Earl Gordon, Wilfred Magee, Duncan Williams, John Williams and Garnet Magee.

He leaves in sad bereavement his beloved wife, formerly Mabel Smith, whom he married in England, two brothers, Stanley and John Campbell and one sister, Lily (Mrs. Frank Cairns), Eugenia. Two sisters predeceased him. An only son, Bill, was killed in Libya while serving with the R.C.A.F. in World War II.

"'Tis the entrance to our home
'Tis the passage to that God
Who bids his children come
When that weary course is trod;
Such is death! Yes, such is death"

Keep your young daughter at home, advises a judge. It might even set a good example for the old folk.

Fish are still being caught on river banks and dim-lit living rooms.
