Deer Poked Its Head Into Open Car Window

(Bq Vandeleur Reporter)

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Graham visited Mr. Norman Stewart of Redickville and other friends recently. They had a novel experience with a deer on the way home. Seeing the animal standing in a field near the road, they stopped the car and backed up to get a better look, and the deer had no objection to their actions. It came over to the fence which it easily jumped, walked up to the car and put its head in an open window. It was entirely without fear and quite friendly. Mr. and Mrs. Graham got out and petted the animal for some time. The deer was a buck and its new set of antlers were just in the velvet-covered stage. The deer followed for some distance. It was learned later that a pet deer resides in that part of Melancthon.

REUNION HELD AT KIMBERLEY SCHOOL

One of the most pleasant events in many years took place on Thursdday when the reunion of old school boys and girls took place. ## Barn Burned In Osprey As Threshing In Progress

Fire broke out in the large barn owned by Thos. Hawes on the third line of Osprey about 9:30 Tuesday morning and destroyed the barn along with the season's crop of hay and wheat, which was being threshed. The separator was also burned and was owned by Frank Seeley of Maxwell. Besides the barn, a hen house was also lost, but no livestock was lost in the flames. The fire started about an hour after threshing had commenced. This is the third threshing separator that Mr. Seeley has been so unfortunate as to lose in the past few years.

Wilkinson Silver Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wilkinson of Rock Mills celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on Friday, July 23rd, with over one hundred attending. Relatives were present from Bognor, Owen Sound, Walters Falls, Heathcote and many neighbors and friends. The home was tastefully decorated for the occasion with a profusion of cut flowers. The dining-room table, laid with a white linen cloth, held the three-tiered anniversary cake. Mrs. Edna Russell received the guests assisted by Mrs. C. H. Parkin. Many lovely gifts in silverware and other useful articles were received from neighbors and friends, including a davenport from the family and Mr. John Wilkinson and family.

LORNE TURVEY, 47, KILLED IN GRAVEL PIT

Lorne Turvey of Flesherton was instantly killed in a gravel pit near Corbetton, Melancthon Township, on Thursday morning last, while he was operating a bulldozer a few yards from the edge of the pit. The bank gave way and the heavy machine plunged about fifteen feet, following Mr. Turvey, who had fallen from the machine. Mr. Turvey's two sons, William and Jack, were working with their father in the pit and saw the accident. The machine had fallen on the unfortunate man and a considerable time elapsed before the body could be taken from underneath the bulldozer and life was then extinct. Dr. Lindsay of Dundalk was called to the scene of the accident and later Coroner W. J. McLean of Shelburne arrived. A jury was empanelled and an inquest was held Monday afternoon in Shelburne and death was found to have been accidental with no blame attached to anyone.

News of the death of Mr. Turvey was a great shock to the residents of the village, as he was highly regarded by all who knew him. He came to Flesherton about ten years ago from Brussels and operated a gravel crushing outfit and did work for the surrounding municipalities and had been working in the Corbetton district for a couple of weeks. He was born in Huron County, near Blythe. Besides his sorrowing wife, the former Florence Hopkins, he is survived by three sons and one daughter: William of Flesherton, Jack, Jimmy and Annette at home. He also leaves one brother, Jim Turvey, and one sister, Mrs. Wallace Agar, both of Bluevale. He was a member of St. John's United church and the Flesherton Service Club.

The funeral was held Saturday afternoon with service in St. John's Unied Church, which was filled with sympathizing friends and relatives. Rev. A. G. Macpherson conducted the service. Interment was made in Flesherton Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. Percy White, Bob Vause, Steve Sutton, Bill Batchelor, Reg. Boyd and Lloyd McCullough.

The flower bearers were: C. McKechnie, Bob Long, G. Armstrong, H. Milligan, G. Boyd, A. Aberdein, M. Phillips, W. Kaitting, H. Richardson, E. Langdon, W. Littlejohns and J. Beatty.

Among those who attended the funeral were: Mrs. F bt. McClean, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McClean, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Jackson and Mrs. D. Bloomfield, all of Owen Sound; Mr. and Mrs. R. Sparling, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Abercrombie, Mr. and Mrs. C. Reid, Mrs. John Yeadell, Mrs. Herb McKenzie, Mrs. Ab. Hopkins, Wm. Yeadell, all of Meaford; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clark, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Flynn, Toronto; Mrs. Wm. McCullough and Mrs. M. C. ## Flesherton Enters The Final Softball Series

Playing to the four-hit pitching of Normie Genoe, Fesherton took the fifth and last game from South Line on Monday night 11-1. South Line had won the fourth game Thursday 6-3, to even the games four each. The largest crowd of the season watched the final game Tuesday evening. Flesherton will now meet the winner of the Dundalk-Eugenia series which has been held up.

Eugenia took the second game from the Dundalk Beavers 4-2 on Friday evening and the count now stands at one win each. The third game was supposed to have been played Monday evening, but Eugenia did not wish to play under the flood lights and the League meeting was held Tuesday evening to settle the issue. The game was ordered played Friday night at 7 p.m., but Dundalk has intimated that they will not continue in the play-downs, so Flesherton will now meet Eugenia, but the dates for the finals have not been set.

Flesherton plays their first game in the Ontario Rural Softball League at Schomburg Monday night in the "A" series and the return game will be played in Flesherton on Friday, August 20th. South Line has been entered in the "B" series, but we have not the date for their games. We hope the boys on both teams will go along far in their championship games.

Inistioge's Marjories And Maudes Are Married

(By Victoria Corners Reporter)

Inistioge Church, one of the oldest pioneer churches of the district erected in 1871, did not have a wedding within its doors until September, 1934, when Marjorie Acheson became the bride of Rev. Gordon Prosser. In August, 1941, her sister, Maude, chose Inistioge as her location to marry Art Blair. Nov. 1942, was the setting of the marriage of their cousin, Maude Acheson, to George Moore and on Saturday, Aug. 7, 1948, was the wedding day of their niece, Marjorie Stevens, and John McKechnie of Durham, which also took place in the old church.

Mrs. Prosser and Mrs. Blair are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Acheson (the latters maiden name being Emma Moore). Marjorie 'Stevens' McKechnie is their granddaughter, and Mrs. Geo. Moore a 'great' niece. Maude Acheson and Geo. Moore's marriage marked the second occasion of these pioneer families being united through the course of three generations. Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Acheson, although not married in the church, going as a bridal couple to the 'Acheson' homestead and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Moore, as bride and groom, settling on the 'Moore' homestead. Thus, all four marriages include descendants of the pioneer families of the late Wm. Acheson and George Moore, all members or adherents of Inistioge United Church throughout its 77 years. To the last of these couple to be married—Marjorie and Jack—we extend our very bests wishes and heartiest congratulations.
