Car Burned On Street Late Saturday Night

A car owned by Everette Wilson of Dundalk was completely destroyed by fire on Toronto Street about 11:30 p.m. on Saturday, as the owner was attending a dance in Flesherton. The fire was blazing fiercely underneath the hood when discovered. There was a short delay while the alarm was turned in and when the firemen arrived a couple of minutes later the inside of the car was a mass of flames, which were soon subdued by the fire apparatus. The chassis and tires were not injured to any extent, but the body and the engine wiring was of no further use. Mr. Wilson told The Advance that he carried coverage for fire.

Where Is Mass Production And Mass Destruction Leading These Days?

(By Vandeleur Reporter)

Mr. T. Stewart Cooper, in his illustrated address in the Vandeleur Community Hall a few weeks ago, made at least two statements that should meet with general approval One was that action should be taken to mark the birth places, or childhood homes, within the county of persons of note. He mentioned Sih Wm. Hearst, Nellie McClung, Cora E. Hind, Isabelle Lougheed and others, whose early life was spent in Grey County and who have achieved fame in one field or another. Not only is it the least we can do in recognition of services rendered, but would be an inspiration to the rising generation and good advertising for the county. Other places are not slow to capitalize on things of this nature. Just recently we read that in Prince Edward Island a memorial is being erected to Mrs. L. M. Montgomery, author of "Ann of Green Gables."

The other statement was "better care should be taken of our forests and wood lots." In this connection we might add that a forestry expert in South-Western Ontario predicts that the maple tree will soon be extinct. The chief causes, re remarked, were mismanagement of the wood lot and the increase of disease. It is truly a heart-break to lovers of nature to see he way in which some wood lots are being slaughtered, but at the same time a person cannot help but marvel at the efficiency of modern loyping methods. In this community, at the present time, the timber is being taken from a farm in the valley and roads have been made down into ravines where it was difficult for horses and sleighs to go even in winter time. Huge trucks go right into the bush and in a few minutes are loaded by a mechanical device, with as many as 30 large logs, and within a couple of hours they are 40 or 50 miles away. Yes, this is an age of efficiency, with mass production and mass destruction but whither is it leading?

FLESHERTON GREY LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

Flesherton won the championship of the South Grey Softball League on Friday evening by taking the third straight game from Eugenia Trout Kings by the score 10-1. The two previous games resulted in the scores of 6-5 and 7-5. Errors on the part of Eugenia was the main cause of their downfall Friday night, as Tom Bemrose pitched a good game and had six strike-outs to his credit, to three by Russ. Andrews for Flesherton, but the nine errors did not help his cause. Flesherton had seven his and Eugenia five, but Andrews did not allow a walk and Bemrose gave three free passes, one of which resulted in a run.

In the three games the team batting favored Eugenia with .251, against an average for Flesherton of .244, but Ken Betts of Flesherton had the highest batting average of .538, with Leslie Seeley, Eugenia, next with .500. "Hank" Best, Flesherton, and Lloyd Partridge, Eugenia, were tied for third place with .454 average and Jack Milne, Flesherton fourth with .428.

A home run on a technical strike-out was the oddest event we have seen this year. Jack Milne shot for first base when The Eugenia catcher dropped the third strike and was safe when the pitch went wild to first and into the outfield. Jack went to second and kept on to third rounded third base and the throw-in from the outfield again eluded the catcher and Jack scored. Just another of those things which helped to lose the ball game and can happen to any team.

Following is our scoring during the three games for times-at-bat hits and batting percentage for both Eugenia and Flesherton:

EUGENIA

	At Bat	Hits	p.c
Leslie Seeley	10	5	.500
L. Partridge	11	5	.454
Bob Clark	13	5	.385
Doug. Cairns	10	3	.300

G. Breadner	8	2	.250
Fred Boyce	13	3	.230
Don Smith	5	1	.200
Thos. Bemrose	7	1	.143
Geo. Bemrose	5	0	.000
B. Benson	2	0	.000

FLESHERTON

	At Bat	Hits	p.c
Ken Betts	13	7	.538
B. Thurston	2	1	.500
Harold Best	11	5	.454
Jack Milne	14	6	.428
R. Andrews	11	3	.272
Bob Turney	7	1	.143
C. MacTavish	8	1	.125

Flesherton 6, Dundalk 3

Flesherton and Dundalk are playing a post-season series of the best in five games and the first was played in Flesherton Tuesday evening, with Flesherton coming out on top 6-3. The locals scored three in the first, two in the second and one in the fourth, while Dundalk put a run across in the fourth on two hits and an error, and in the ninth they counted twice on two hits and two errors. With two on in the ninth and two runs in Bus Springgay, who had three hits out of four trips to the plate missed his chance for glory when he hit a long fly to Bannon in left field with two away, which ended the game. A home run would have tied it up. Bob Phillips was the "King of Swat" in this game with three hits out of four. The big three on the local team only had one hit between them out of fourteen times at bat. Not so good.

The next game will be played Dundalk Friday night at 8 p.m. under the flood-lights.

THIS TIME BARBER GETS TRIM

A man walked into a barber shop shop at Fort Erie with a small boy and had a hair cut, shave and shampoo. He breezed out, telling the barber: "Fix up the boy and I'll settle when I get back." The barber cut the boy's hair and as the lad walked out, the barber reminded him to wait for his father. "He's not my father," snorted the boy. "Never saw him before. He stopped me on the street and asked me if I wanted a haircut."

Dedication Of Communion Table At Feversham Church

The dedication of a communion table in Burns Presbyterian Church, Feversham, to the glory of God and in loving memory of Mrs. William Moffat, was made by her two daughters, Mina and Gertrude. Burns Church was filled almost to capacity when Dr. Shein, assisted by the present student-veteran, Granville Taylor-Munro, held special service as memorial "for all the saints who from their labors rest." Mrs. J. Crawford (Mina) attended the service to represent the donors of the gift, herself and Mrs. W. A. Blaschke (Gertrude) of Preston, who was unable to be present.

Dr. Shein took his text from the prophecies of Habakkuk 3:18 (Yet I will rejoice in the Lord, I will joy in the God of my salvation). He showed a parallel in the promised despair and catastrophe for the people in the day of the prophet, to that of our own day of wars, new and heavy burdens, and pending disaster. He pointed out that there were three reasons why the prophet could give such a brave witness in the face of such dark prospects: he had a steadfast faith in God; he appropriated God's view of history; he saw that his life is governed primarily by moral and scriptural laws. Dr. Shein even though exhibiting a highly intellectual philosophy, speaks a language that the christian layman finds most challenging. "Prophets of old contrary to popular opinion, were not fortune-tellers, but men who spoke the 'Thus saith the Lord' often against heir own wills"; and "Social gospels of our day are often just childish 'Whistlings in the dark to keep our courage up'," were two of the statements made by Dr. Shein who preached a powerful and gripping message from the Scriptures. The people of Feversham community will remember him and his term of service for his quiet and effective results in new appreciation for the things of God. — Cont.

Flesherton Greatly Reduced Hydro Allotment For

Flesherton Hydro Commission has received instructions from the Ontario Hydro Commission to drastically reduce the amount of electricity used in Flesherton until further notice. The new regulations were read at the meeting of the Village Council Monday evening. Last year Flesherton was allowed to use 1200 killowatt hours from Monday to Friday, and this year the amount has been reduced to 900 k.w. This means that every householder and user of power will have to keep off as many lights as possible and use power economically if the desired saving is to be achieved each day, otherwise power may have to be cut off at certain hours each day. The new regulations were published in last issue of The Advance and hydro consumers are urged to look over their copy and become familiar with the regulations in which they must comply.
