A common loafer is a good bad example.

An artist's wife was granted $100 monthly alimony—sort of a drawing account.

The old story that it's the woman who pays no longer holds true. She has it charged.

The office grouch says: "Why marry? I can hire a cook; find single girls for company, and teach a parrot to nag me."

Nature balances things. By the time a woman loses the charm of girlhood, she is wise enough to charm men of middle age.

If two people disagree about an oral agreement they made, it is because both were talking and neither listening.

Every man fails in some degree. Why worry over it? If failure was important, all losers in sports would crack up.

VICTORIA CORNERS

(Intended for Last Week)

Mrs. George Ludlow returned from Orangeville Hospital Friday evening after spending the past three days under observation. Monday morning she returned to the hospital for further observation, pending a possible operation. We trust the trouble may not be too extensive and that Mrs. Ludlow may soon be restored to better health and an early return home. During her absence Mrs. Albert Stinson, who came back to her home on Saturday after a month at Belfountain, will attend to the household duties and be a companion to her brother, George.

Mr. Jas. Walker and Miss Wilda Wills, Hamilton, were week end and holiday guests of the former's brother, Sandy, and family.

Week end and Labor Day guests in the home of Geo. Moore were: Mr. and Mrs. Walt. Arnold, Bobby and Peggy Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McGrath of Buffalo, N.Y.

Misses Doreen and Elda Reid of Brampton visited during the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Linton and other relatives.

Mr. Jos. Gallaugher attended the CNE the latter part of the week. His little nephew, Keith Gallaugher, of Wareham during that time stayed with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Gallaugher.

Bringing her mother home from Belfountain on Saturday, Mrs. Bill Coon, her husband and sons, Billie and Bobby, of Acton remained over the week end and holiday.

Mrs. Chrysler of Orillia is vacationing with her daughter, Mrs. Jack Gowanlock.

The town hall, Dundalk, was the centre of a gathering of friends and neighbors of Victoria Corners community on Friday night, Sept. 3rd, to honor a recent groom and bride, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gillies (Marjorie Jackson) of Toronto. Miss Joice Patterson read an address of best wishes and an envelope of money was presented to the young couple.

IN TWO short years we have added over 257,000 telephones, put in hundreds of switchboards and trained thousands of people to extend and improve your telephone service.

We are adding more telephones to meet the continuing demand for service just as fast as equipment becomes available.

All this is being done in the face of rising costs. Yet, up to now, there has been no increase in the basic telephone rates established 21 years ago.

For you, this means greater value than ever before; for us, the satisfaction of providing "the best telephone service at the lowest possible cost".

HANDS AT WORK... for ONTARIO

LEARNING MACHINE ASSEMBLY

ONTARIO'S products are desired and purchased by people all over the world and the capacity to produce such goods largely determines the economic welfare of every man, woman and child within her borders. Because the sale of every article produced in Ontario brings valuable dollars into this Province, we all are more assured of job security . . . and we and our children can have more of the better things in life. But to produce such goods in sufficient quantities, skilled labour is vital. That is why every single one of us should be glad that war veterans are constantly being trained to provide the skilled hands so needed by industry. They receive ON THE JOB training under expert instructors in our Ontario factories.

This training, provided through the co-operation of the Department of Veterans' Affairs, the Federal Department of Labour and the Ontario Department of Education, starts the veteran on the road to skilled craftsmanship. In assembling business machines, for example, veterans must have a thorough knowledge of electricity and must learn to perform intricate work on precision machines having thousands of separate parts. These Canadian-made business machines are sold in all parts of the world, creating new wealth for Canada and Ontario. Therefore every effort of these newly skilled veterans helps to make Ontario a finer place in which to live and contributes to the welfare and happiness of all her citizens.

THE BREWING INDUSTRY (ONTARIO)

MACHINE ASSEMBLY

John N. West, 25, of Toronto, a Royal Canadian Navy veteran, is shown here making an adjustment to one of the 10,000 parts in a business machine designed for a New Zealand firm.

Various types of business machines are produced in Ontario factories. Because of their intricate mechanisms it is essential that these machines be checked by expert craftsmen at every stage of their production.
