Former Flesherton Couple 55 Years Married

32 Indian Rd., Toronto
Editor of The Advance:

Dear Sir,- Kindly allow me through The Advance to communicate the heart-felt appreciation of myself and Mrs. Buskin, to the Flesherton Old Boys and Girls in Toronto, for the beautiful box of flowers received to help us enjoy our 55th wedding anniversary, and Mrs. Buskin's birthday on St. Valentine's Day. Believe me, your thoughtfulness will be long remembered by us. It is a wonderful feeling to know that you are not forgotten. We have just received instructions to be at Reta's (Mrs. Regan on the afternoon of Feb. 13, to be congratulated by the Rebekah Lodge, and your flowers will go with us as a symbol of old times.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wes. Buskin

Appointed As Toronto Branch Bank Manager

The appointmest of William E. Stewart as manager of its King and Yonge Streets branch was announced on Friday by the Bank of Montreal. Mr. Stewart took over his new duties on Monday of this week. Bill, as he is known by his many friends here, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart of Flesherton and jointed the staff of the Bank of Montréal when a branch of the bank was located in Flesherton. He has spent some years in the head office in Toronto in charge of various departments and two years ago went to the main branch of the Bank in Montreal as assistant manager. Now his apopintment as manager of the King and Yonge branch is a reward for splendid work with the Bank of Montreal. We are looking for Bill to reach the heights in banking. Congratulations, ill!

Carnival And Ice Follies Enjoyed By Large Crowd

Featuring a display of figure and fancy skating by members of the Georgian Skating Club of Owen Sound and the Markdale Figure Skating Club, the Flesherton Ice Follies and Carnival attracted the largest crowds of spectators and contestants ever to jam the Flesheron arena, held Thursday evening of last week. The graceful exhibition of Miss Jean Shears of Owen Sound won the acclaim of all, while little Miss Margaret Cherry of the Markdale Club showed promise in her display of figure skating. Miss Marion Pigeon, teacher of figure skating and Mr. Hugh Mercer of Markdale, both of whom are members of the Georgian Club, gave an exhibition of free skating and a few acrobatics that were smoothly performed. Other single numbers were given by Misses Gwen Burnside and Barbara Wright of Markdale. Others taking part from Markdale wer Lois taking part from Markdale were Lois Summers, Georgina Whitney, Maxine Parliament, Ruth Alcox, Ruth Peters, and Peter Thibaudeau.

The new rink was officially opened by H. A. McCauley, president of the Flesherton Service Club, under whose auspices the rink has been enlarged, and Reeve K. G. Betts. Mr. McCauley stated that there was a balance of $2000.00 yet to be raised to complete the payment for the community centre and with the continued whole-hearted support of the people this objective could be realized in the near future. Reeve Betts welcomed the large gathering and remarked that the new community centre belong to the people of this district for their enjoyment and looked forward to the time when it could be turned over debt free for their use.

There was a wide variety in the costumes of the skaters and some were of exceptionally fine quality. We might mention those of Mrs. E. J. Fisher in Japanese costume and Emery as an African negro, and Fred Gorrel who was dressed in a Dutch costume with Dutch skates, which he had brought back from Holland at the close of the war. The judges for the carnival were Hugh Mercer of Markdale and Dr. A. D. McAllister and Hugh Carter of Dundalk.

The gayety of the evening was further enlivened with music by a pipe band, which played throughout the evening and led the grand parade of contestants at the close of the judging.

A broomball game by the high school girls, played with a rugby ball, had the big crowd almost in hysterics as play ranged from end to end. The girls were completely outfitted with all the paraphernalia peculiar to hockey players. The whites won the game 1-0, the only goal being scored by Eleanor Sparks. This was followed by a mock fight by the girls when all engaged in a free-for-all, much to the amusement of the crowd.

Prize winners were: Youngest skater, 7 and under, Sandra Fisher, Lynn Andrews, Joanne Scarrow; 8 to 12, Roddy MacDougall, Heather Macpherson, Peter Goheen; best skating couple, Rev. A. G. Macpherson and daughter, Margaret, Roy Best and Jean McCracken, best original costume, Les. Chard, Jack Bannon; best comic, open, Harold Best and Norman Scarrow, Eldon Fawcett and Pat Stauffer; best comic, under 12, Harold Hamilton, Jean Magee and Barry Scarrow; best comic advertising display, George and Mrs. Boyd, Joanne Scarrow; best fancy dress, under 12, Margaret MacTavish; best hard times, Barry Scarrow, Harold Best; best fancy costume, Mrs. Wm. Turvey, Mrs. N. Scarrow, Mrs. H. Best; best patriotic, any group, George Armstrong, Mrs. J. MacLean and daughter; best patriotic under 12, Pat. MacLean, Peter Goheen, Heather Macpherson; best patriotic, single or double, George Armstrong and Mrs. MacLean, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Andrews; best animal, Bob Long, Bruce Thurston and Bill Aberdein, Ken Betts, Reg Boyd and Billy Boyd; all-Canadian costume, Shirley Aberdein, John Cook; nursery rhymne costume, Norma Betts, Sandra Fisher, Miss A. Wilson; oldest skater, Jos. Radley, Howard McGee.

Prizes for the winners were donated by the Flesherton businessmen. The ticket sale was a record for the Flesherton arena and $280 of paid admissions were realized.

Director of Ceremonies for the evening's proceedings was Mr. Bob Phillips, who produced a commendable performance.

Inter-Church Youth Service Held In St. John's

Speaking specially to youth at St. John's United Church last Sunday evening, Rev. Paul Christenson of Dundalk reminded that everyone must go through the "Valley of Decision." He urged the young people not to spend too long there, but to choose the Way of the Cross as their way of life, and to let the great Pioneer of the Christian Faith lead them.

The large congregation included visitors from neighboring young people's groups, as well as the members of St. John's. Eleanor Sparks conducted the service, assisted by Jean McCracken and Erma Aberdein. Misses Emily Acheson and Muriel Sparks contributed to the enjyment of the service by a lovely duet, accompanied by Mrs. J. E. Milne on the pipe organ. The offering was taken by four young men: Messrs. Roy Best, Bob Stoddart, David McGee and Bruce Thurston. Rev. A. G. Macpherson made the announcements and extended a warm welcome to every one present, and invited them back next Sunday to the special Boys' and Girls' Service.

A bouquet of beautiful flowers graced the communion table, in memory of the late Mrs. Wm. Moore.

The Late Mrs. Wm. Moore

The funeral of the late Mrs. Wiliam Moore, who passed away on Monday, Feb. 7th, at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. J. Brown, was held Wednesday afternoon, with service in St. John's United Church, conducted by her pastor, Rev. A. B. Macpherson. Members of the choir assisted in the singing of "Abide With Me" and "Work For the Night is Coming." Interment was made in the Flesherton Cemetery Chapel.

The casket bearers were: Messrs. G. B. Welton, F. W. Duncan, A. E. Bellamy, C. J. Bellamy, Reg. Boyd and John Thistlewaite.

Among the many beautifhl floral tributes were messages of sympathy from St. John's United Church, the friends and neighbors, and St. John's W. A. group.

The flower bearers were William, Fred and Gordon Irwin, J. T. Parker Ted Lyons, Ellwood Stevens and Filfred Graham.

Among those attending the funeral from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lyons, all of Brampton; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Carter, Mrs. Mary Carter Mrs. Effie Wight and Mrs. Geo. Davis, all of Toronto; Mrs. Walter Duggan, Flint, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. John Petty, Miss Agnes Petty, Durham; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Irwin and Mrs. T. Gilchrist of Badjeros; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Walker, Chesley; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Graham, Markdale, and Mr. and Mrs. Harol Bates, Hamilton.

The late Mrs. Moore was the former Margaret Jane Irwin, daughter of the late Charles Irwin and Jane Sharp and was born in Flesherton on May 31st, 1869. In 1902 she was married to William Moore, who was a harness-maker in Flesherton and for many years carried mail and express between the station and the village. Mr. Moore predeceased her in 1934. Deceased was very active in church work, especially in the Woman's Association and Woman's Missionary Society and also taught in the Sunday School for many years, and was a member of St. John's United Church.

Surviving are her sister, Mrs. J. J. Brown and two nieces, Mrs. Arnold Bowler of Flesherton and Mrs. Harol Bates of Hamilton.

It's a nice knack to be able to disagree without being disagreeable.

A grown-up usually means about half he says, and a youngster says about half he means.

John F. Stothart Passes

(By Priceville Reporter)

John Ferris Stothart, one of Priceville's most highly respected citizens, passed away Sunday morning, Feb. 13th, at his late residence, in his 72nd year. Death came as a result of a paralytic stroke, which he suffered a week prior to his death.

The late Mr. Stothart was born on the farm where he passed away, and was the youngest son of the late Thomas Stothart and Mary Smith and spent most of his life at Priceville. He was a member of St. Columba United Church and was always in attendance when health permitted. He will be greatly missed in the home and community. He was a successful farmer and also a cattle drover.

Deceased leaves to mourn his passing, two sisters, Margaret, Reg. N., of San Francisco, and Rachel, Mrs. Albert Donaldson, of West Palm Beach, Florida. One sister, Minnie, who kept house for him, died Feb. 27th, 1920; Jemima, Mrs. Ramsdell of New York, died Sept. 21, 1947, and a brother, Alex., passed away March 9th, 1948, at Aberdeen, Wash.,

Two nurses were in attendance during his illness, Marjorie McLeod, Reg.N., of Swinton Park and Miss Smith of Feversham. The funeral is being held this Tuesday afternoon with interment taking place in McNeill's Cemetery.

A Tennessee man had his trousers torn off in a traffic accident. He was left just shorts of total embarrassment.
