VICTORIA CORNERS

An impromptu presentation in the school bus on Thursday morning included the signature of eleven public school pupils names from S. S. No. 4 Artemesia on the address read by Irene Duncan, to the driver Mr. Wallace Hamilton, who has so kindly and patiently transported these children to and from school throughout the winter months. Isabel Bumstead made the presentation of a pen and pencil set and a pair of socks. Mr. Hamilton though taken completely by surprise thanked the children for their gesture.

Thursday was the meeting of the Inistioge W. A. in the home of Mrs. Wm. Crockford for the Easter meeting. Thirteen ladies were present and a very profitable afternoon was spent. Miss Lackey very capably took the devotional exercises, basing her period on the "Good Shepherd." Each lady had a reading in keeping with the same. Mrs. Johnnie Goth gave the Missionary chapter.

Easter guests during the week end in the Bannon home included Miss Doris Bannon, Mr. Jas. Bannon, Tommy and Donna Gail, Toronto; Miss Kathleen Bannon T.C.A. stewardess, Vancouver, who will remain for a longer vacation.

Other district visitors: Mr. and Walker and Miss Wanda Wields, Hamilton, with the former's brother Sandy and Mrs. Walker; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Coon, Bobby and Billie and Mrs. Albert Stinson at the latter's home here. Mrs. Stinson remained for the summer months; Mr. and Mrs. George MacGregor, Wayne and Maureen, Preston, with Mrs. MacGregor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Batchelor; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gamble and Cleo and Mrs. Albert Stevens, Sudbury with Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Stevens, Mrs. Stevens to remain here now after spending the winter months with her daughter in Sudbury. Mr. Gamble will remain for a week's visit while his wife attends the O.E.A. convention. Mr. Frank Ames, Matachewan, with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Forbes, Mr. and John McKechnie, Durham, with Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Stevens; Miss Marie Cooke, Toronto, with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Acheson; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gillies, Harold and Hazel Jackson, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Glynn Jackson, Brantford, at Art Jackson's; Miss Peggy Linton, Owen Sound with Mr. and Mrs. Russel Linton and Douglas.

A very impressive Easter service was held in Inistioge United Church on Sunday afternoon with Rev. A G. Macpherson in charge. The highlight feature of the ceremony was the rite of baptism conferred on Lyle Crockford and Bill Jackson, and the receiving into full membership with the Church of Lyle and Bill, their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Crockford, Mr. and Mrs. Art Jackson, Nancy Patterson, Mary Nicholls Wilma Stevens, Donald Brown and Bobby Nicholls. This was followed by communion service for all members. A record attendance was present for the Easter service which poured forth more purposeful meaning of the sacred season. Special music was supplied by the organist Mrs. Elmo Stevens, and choir members.

May we stop here to extend our best wishes and congratulations to the bride and groom of Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fowler, Salem, who were married in Dundalk. The bride, the former Laura Nicholls Lee, a resident of this community for a number of years still holds a place of interest in the hearts of her friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Love and Jim were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Hannah, Berkeley.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bumstead, Hazel, Harold and Isabel were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bumstead, Berkeley. Mrs. Bumstead and Isabel are visiting during the Easter vacation with Markdale friends.

Mr. Colin McLean and Alex. McLean of Toronto were Easter visitors in the village.

Mrs. Archie McKechnie and sons spent the week end with friends in Toronto.

The air force recruit was leaving for his training base and his mother was very concerned over his safety. "Remember son," she advised, "be careful, fly low and slow."

The Late William Martin

William John Martin, in failing health for the past year and a half, died on Monday evening at his home at 989 2nd Ave. East. He was born at Eugenia Falls, in Artemesia Township, but had lived in Owen Sound for the last 25 years.

He was the son of the late John James Martin and the former Margaret Thompson of Eugenia, where he was brought up and where he farmed for 12 years as a young man. He lived for awhile in Flesherton and worked on the construction of the hydro electric power dam at Eugenia.

He later went to Northern Ontario and worked at Bracebridge on the same type of work, after which he returned to live in Owen Sound.

On Dec. 28, 1904, he married the former Annie Ethel Camack of Kimberly, who survives with one daughter, Wilda, and two sons, Orville Gordon of St. Clair Shores, Mich., and Charles Melbourne of Owen Sound. There are also seven grandchildren.

His two brothers and three sisters also survive Mr. Martin's passing. They are: Misses Cora and Nettie Martin, Owen Sound; Elsie, Mrs. Mac Caswell of R. R. 4, Owen Sound, Fred of Owen Sound and Charles of Eugenia.

Married 44 years ago last December, the late Mr. Martin was strongly attached to his home and family. He was also a devout member of Calvary United Missionary Church in Owen Sound and always attended services regularly when his health permitted.
