Wm. Miller Died In Dundalk After Lengthy Illness

(From Dundalk Herald)

For more than ten years a popular and active grocer and feed merchant here, William Henry Miller passed to the spirit world late Friday night, April 22, following an illness dating back 2½ years. For several weeks it has been known that he could not recover but he was a cheerful patient through it all and bore his affliction with unfailing Christian fortitude. He was in his 65th year.

Born at Heathcote, March 1, 1885, he was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. David Miller. At the age of 13 he moved with his parents to Thornbury and started what was to be a long and colorful career in the mercantile business. His first job was in Carr Bros. general store. Later he was employed at Orangeville and then in the general store of F. H. W. Hickling, Flesherton, for several years before going to Meaford, where he was in business for a time. Returning to Flesherton, he served as manager of the O. & A. Co-operative store for about five years. In July, 1938, he came to Dundalk and bought the grocery and feed business of Jos Wilson. He built a prosperous business and a few years later bought the building from Mrs. W. J. Russell.

Not only was Mr. Miller an obliging merchant, but he proved himself a valued friend to his customers. It is a matter of general regret that the cativities of one who enjoyed life so much had been lessened and finally cut off.

During his residence here, he served two years on the Village Council. He was Superintendent of the Sunday School of the United Church for several years. A member of the Session, he had been Session Clerk of the United Church at the time of his passing. He was active in church work all his life. As a tribute to this former councilman, the village flag hung at half-mast on the day of his funeral.

On July 19, 1916, he married Ella Jane Long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Long of Honeywood and to them was born one daughter, Marion, now Mrs. R. N. (Dick) Stewart of Dundalk. These, along with one granddaughter, Nancy Stewart, survive him; also three sisters, Mrs. Herb Benedict (Biah), Meaford; Mrs. R. Langley (Phoebe), Sault Ste. Marie, and Mrs. Walter Chisholm (Alice) of Port Arthur.

The body rested at the McMillan Funeral Home until Monday noon. Service was held in Dundalk United Church, of which Mr. Miller had been a faithful and active member when in good health. The service, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Paul Christensen, was largely attended by sympathizing friends. Rev. Christensen based his brief but appropriate remarks on the text in John, chapter 14: "I am the Way." It was pointed out that Mr. Miller had been a great believer in the House of God and that he was convinced of the presence of his Master throughout his life.

The funeral cortege proceeded to the mortuary chapel in Flesherton Cemetery, where interment will be made in the family plot. The pallbearers were: Dr. A. D. McAlister, Wilfred Soper, George Hanbury, Ivan Carson, Arthur Jackson and Frank Macintyre.

There were many floral tributes, including a basket, Dundalk United Church, Dundalk Women's Institute, Flesherton Businessmen, Dundalk Service Club, Dundalk Businessmen, Meaford L.O.B.A., Flesherton Co-operative Staff, George Manjuris and Staff.

Friends attended from Meaford, Thornbury, Collingwood, Creemore, Honeywood, Rob Roy, Flesherton, Horning's Mills, Emsdale, Toronto.

"I trust them more than I'd trust myself"

THE BANK'S the place for my money. I always put part of my pay into my bank account—otherwise it burns a hole in my pocket. I guess I trust the bank more than I trust myself! I figure that's one reason why my savings have been building up the way they have.

Another reason I'm sold on a bank account is that I always know just where I stand. All I have to do is take a look at my pass-book. They're a lot better bookkeepers than I am.

What's more, what's in my pass-book is my business, and I can count on the bank people to keep their mouths shut about it. And that suits me just fine!

Going to your bank is not like having to deal with a state bureau—but that's how it would be under state monopoly.
