VICTORIA CORNERS

Tuesday evening featured a joint birthday party in the home of Mr. and Mr. Hugh Bumstead, when they entertained Mr. and Mrs. Walter Acheson and Mr. and Mrs. George Moore and Garry, the day, April 26, being th birthday anniversaries of Harold Bumstead and Walter Acheson, the preceding day Garry's and the following day, April 27, that of Hazel Bumstead. Many more happy birthdays to you all! Sunday guests in the same home were Mr. and Mrs. Austin Reid and family, Mr. Dobson and daughter, Shirley, and Mr. Leitch all of Markdale, Mr. Hogg and son, George, Mrs. Sherwood and daughter, June.

Messrs. Wm., Johnnie, Leslie and Edgar Duncan and Walter Acheson went to Thornbury on a fishing trip on Wednesday.

Heartiest congratulations and very best wishes are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gallaugher (the former Annie Lockhart, Proton Station) who were married in Flesherton Thursday, April 28th. They will make their home on the Gallaugher farm in this community.

A big welcome back to Victoria Corners, after 17 years abroad, is extended to Mr. E. A. Brookes, who arrived at the home of Milton Bannon on Thursday evening, in company with his wife (who he met and married in England during his stay there), her two sisters, Mrs. Clara Bassett and Miss Jessie Knight. They plan on staying with the Bannon's for a time and remaining in Canada indefinitely, since Ed.'s remarks on his return home were "It's the best yet." They had left their hom at Hockley, England, and sailed on the Aquitania, docking at Halifax. Miss Joyce Genoe of Gravenhurst and Doris Bannon of Toronto were week end guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bannon and Kathleen motored to Toronto Wednesday. Kathleen left the Malton airport Thursday afternoon for Vancouver and her T.C.A. duties.

One of our Inistioge young people, Gerald Patterson, attained high honors at Durdalk high school cadet inspection, entitling him to go to Niagara on Friday to partake in a shooting competition. He accompanied his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Acheson, Proton Station, as far as Toronto.

Our sympathy is extended to Mrs. Wes Dever, Markdale, and Mrs. Thos. White, Saugeen Jct., in the sudden passing of their youngest sister, Mildred (Mrs. Simpson) at her home in Vancouver. The remains were being brought to Flesherton for interment in Flesherton Cemetery.

The Young People's held a progressive crokinole and social evening in the home of Luther Love on Wednesday evening of last week.

Miss Kaye Bannon, Vancouver, visited with relatives in Toronto from Wednesday to Friday of last week. On her return to her parental home, she was accompanied by her sister, Doris, who spent the week end with her parents.

Mrs. Albert Reid, Marion and Helen of Brampton were Easter vacation guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Jas. Linton, and sister, Mrs. Ernie Stewart.

Master Wayne and little Miss Maureen McGregor, Preston, spent the Easter holidays with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Batchelor. Monday of this week they returned home in company with their grandparents and uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Batchelor, who spent the day with the McGregor family.

A largely attended presentation party was held in Proton Station Orange Hall on Friday evening, honoring a recent bridal couple, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fowler (nee Laura "Nichlls" Lee). An address of best wishes was read by Mrs. Gilbert McCannell and the presentation of a sum of money was made, to which Edwin replied in a few chosen words.

Mrs. John McKechnie, Durham, enjoyed the latter part of Easter vaction with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Stevens.

Mr. Max Fletcher and Miss Annie Bumstead, Markdale, visited during the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bumstead and family. They all visited on Sunday with Meaford relatives.

Much sympathy is extended to Mrs. Wm. Miller and daughter, Marion, in the loss of their husband and father.

Our sympathy is also extended to Mr. Jack Gowanlock and family in the loss of his mother at Orillia, the latter part of December. The Gowanlock family is at Orillia this Tuesday attending the committal of the remains, after resting in the vault during the winter months. While at Orillia they will visit his aged father who now resides alone.
