St. John's United Church

Rev. A. G. Macpherson
Minister

"Rural Life Sunday" will be observed on May 22nd at Flesherton, Proton and Eugenia. Everyone is urged to join in worship on this special Sunday. Bring your visitors and other friends.

St. John's W.M.S. meets Friday, May 20th, at 3 p.m., in the church basement. Clothing and bedding for Overseas Relief will be packed. Contributions will be gladly received up to that date. Please leave with Mrs. F. Duncan, or bring them to the church on Friday.

Baptist Church News

Nineteen young people from the local B.Y.P.U. attended the rally at Neustadt last Friday evening. Ione Betts and Audrey Whyte contributed to the program in the reading of scripture lesson and leading in prayer. Emerson Beaton was elected president of the country-wide association of the Baptist Y.P.U.

A noted increase in the Sunday School attendance at Rock Mills brought the attendance up to 75. The church was almost filled to capacity for the regular worship service. The pastor's sermon, entitled "Graveclothes," dealt with the raising of Lazarus in John 11. Emphasis was placed on the Christian duty of helping remove the graveclothes of selfish, sinful and worldly habits which cling so tenaciously to the young convert's life. Hazel and Nelly Fletcher played the offertory music in both Flesherton and Rock Mills churches.
