Mr. and Mrs. S. J. White of Windsor and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stuart of Detroit motored over and were the guests of relatives here during the week end.

Nowadays the electric switch makes things go. In the olden days they used the hickory switch.

A man who was wanted by the police had been photographed from six different angles and the pictures had been sent out over the state. In a few days state police headquarters received this word from a small-town constable: "I duly received the pictures of six miscreants wanted. Five of them have been captured and we are on the trail of the sixth."

Some Facts About Walter E. Harris

LIBERAL CANDIDATE IN GREY-BRUCE

Walter E. Harris

Walter E. Harris needs no introdcction to the majority of voters, having represented Grey-Bruce in the Federal House for the past 9 years. However, for the benefit of those who may be casting their first vote in Grey-Bruce, we will give some of tre highlights of his Parliamentary career. ....

First elected in 1940, he served in the Canadian Army in Canada, the United Kingdom, and France, 1940—45.

Re-elected in 1945, his ability was recognized by Primet Minister Mackenzie King, who appointed him Parliamentary Advisor to the Canadian Delegation to the United Nations' Assembly at Lake Success, N.Y., in 1947. At the conclusion of that Session he was appointed Parliamentary Assistant to the then Secretary of State for External Affairs (Mr. St. Laurent).

This appointment "was considered in Ottawa to be the result of untiring work by one of the most conscientious members of the House of Commons."

During the Fall of 1948, Walter Harris was entrusted with important duties in the negotiations for the entry of Newfoundland into Confederation. Further recognition of his ability came in November, 1948, when Mr St. Laurent, the newly selected Prime Minister, appointed Mr. Harris as his Pariamentary Assistant. His legislative experience from 1945-49 included service on the following Parliamentary Committees: Agrictultural, the Veterans' Affairs, National Flag (Chairman), Redistribution Vice-Chairman), Dominion Elections (Chairman).

Mr. Harris is a native of Grey County, is married to the former Grace Morrison, has a family of three children, and resides in Markdale.

We believe that Walter Harris will make the best representative for Grey-Bruce

Portrait in your bank book

YOUR BANK BOOK is a little book . . . yet in it you can just about trace the outlines of your life story.

It pictures at a glance how much you've spent, how much you have left.

It's one of your most personal, most private belongings. It gives you a full accounting, figured to the penny by your bank's trained staff. Clear as a bell!

Your bank book is a limited edition—one copy only. What is in it is known only to your bank and to you.

Multiply your bank book by seven million and you get some idea of the book-keeping job your Canadian chartered banks are doing. There are more than seven million deposit accounts like yours . . .
