Moves House 11 Miles To Flesherton Site

Last week Mr. Thos. Sled moved a house which he purchased last winter where it wsa located north winter where it was located north of Wodehouse, to the lot he bought from F. J. Thurston. The house was brought on a large moving float and was moved to Flesherton in one day, a distance of 11 miles. It was quite an undertaking, with hydro and telephone men on the job to clear the path of wires. Mr. Sled will now have a nice five-room home in town.

In some sections the saying should be changed to: "save something for a droughty day."

RUSSELL — STEWART

On Saturday, June 4th, Cavan Presbyterian Church, Bolton, was beautifully decorated with early summer flowers for the wedding of Isabel Muriel, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Stewart, Bolton, to Elmer Robert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Russell, Flesherton. The officiating minister was Rev. J.C. Ross of Iroquois, a former pastor of the church.

The bride was attired in a gown of petal white satin fashioned with sweetheart neckline, long tight sleeves and slim moulded bodice, richly shirred on each side of centre front panel. Tiny satin covered buttons to the waist added back interest to the gown. The gracefully gathered skirt swept to a circular train, a bonnet trim headdress of tulle illusion intricately gathered, held her finger-tip veil, and she carried a cascade of white roses and forget-me-nots. Attendants were Miss Shirley Schnirr of Guelph, who wore lemon wellow brocaded taffeta with headdress of yellow rose buds and carried mauve sweet peas. Little Mary Rutherford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rutherford of Boton, made a beautiful flower girl, dressed in a dainty gown of vivid green with headdress and gloves of the same material, carrying a tiny basket of yellow and mauve flowers, gracefully tied with bronze ribbon. Mr. Clarence Rennie of Blackwater College, friend of the groom, was the bestman. Miss Phyllis Black, friend of the bride, played the wedding music, wearing coral pink with headdress to match and corsage of pink carnations with feather back. Murray Stewart, youngest brother of the bride sang "Because" just before the bride entered and "I'll Walk Beside You" during the signing of the register. Ushers were Walter Russell, eldest brother of the groom, and Andrew Stewart, eldest brother of the bride.

The reception was held in the Sunday School hall, beautifully decorated for the occasion with pink and white streamers, white bells and pink and withe carnations. Parents of the bridal couple received with them, for which the mother of the bride chose a grey crepe dress, grey hat and navy accessories, while the mother of the groom wore navy blue suit, pink blouse and grey hat and accessories.

The bride chose a navy blue suit with white organdie blouse, navy hat with white flower trimming, navy shoes, gloves and bag for travelling. On returning from their honeymoon they will reside on the Downham Nursery Farm, Arcona, for which the groom is the manager.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McCracken of Flesherton wish to announce the engagement of their youngest daughter, Shirley Valrie, to Mr. Fred Hilliard Marshall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marshall of Ceylon, the marriage to take place quietly in July.

The engagement is announced of Annie Janet, youngest daughter of Mr. Henry Tudor and the late Mrs. Tudor of Eugenia, to Doriand Frederick Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Campbell of Eugenia. The marriage will take place in July.

Fatalities in these sweltering months are comparatively light, considering the number of people who ask, "Is it hot enough for you?"

St. John's United Church Holds 75th Anniversary

The 72nd anniversary of St. John's United Church was celebrated with two fine services of worship on Sunday, June 19th. In the morning, the minister, Rev. A. G. Macpherson, was in charge and preached on "Invitation and Enlistment," urging the importance of these two phases of church life. The junior choir, under Mrs. J. E. Milne, led the singing and rendered two fine anthems.

In the evening, Rev. Morrison Sellar of Knox United Church, Owen Sound, was in charge, and presented the claim of the Christ upon the individual and the home. The senior choir sang two anthems, with Mrs. R. Andrews taking the solo part. Mrs. Russell Acheson of Proton Station was guest soloist and sang "Submission." The beautiful auditorium, adorned with early summer flowers, lent itself to impressive worship.

The pipe organ, which is to be radically renovated and improved this summer threatened to play out a few times, but Mrs. Milne very capably covered up the defects and few of the congregation noticed. Altogether, it was a grand occasion in the life and work of St. John's.

Father Initiates Son

A pleasant event took place at a meeting of Flesherton L.O.L. No. 2855, when Wor. Bro. Norman Stoddart had the pleasure of initiating his son, Bob, into the Order. Two other candidates were also received.

THURSTON — YOUNG

Pink and white snapdragon, red peonies and pink candles in candelabra decorated the Morrison Inn, Owen Sound, Saturday, June 18, at 12 noon, when Verna Viola, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Young of Holland Centre, became the bride of James Howard Thurston, edlest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Thurston of Flesherton. Rev. A. G. Macpherson of Flesherton performed the double ring wedding ceremony.

The bride was gowned in white slipper satin, styled with sweetheart neckline, beaded bodice, long pointed sleeves, the full skirt ending in a slight train. A finger-tip veil was held on her dark hair by a coronet of waxed calla lilies and she wore a rhinestone necklace and matching earrings, the gift of the groom. Her crescent cascade was of Better Time roses and white stephanotis with ivy foliage.

Miss Sadie Young was her sister's only attendant. She chose a pink taffeta frock, made with puff sleeves, sweetheart neckline and full skirt. Her long mittens were of matching material. Providence Ladies' Aid Observes 25th Birthday

Sunset Point, Collingwood was the scene of a happy occasion Saturday, June 18th, when the members of Providence Ladies' Aid entertained as their guests, their families and all members of former years, who were able to attend, in honor of the 25th anniversary.

One hundred and ten sat down to a daintily arranged supper table, decorated with flowers and centred by a five-tier birthday cake made by Mrs. W. Wilson, Mrs. A. Maxwell and Mrs. Jack Graham. Mrs John Dobson, 85 years of age, honorary president, cut the cake, after which she was recipient of a lovely bouquet of flowers from Mrs. Wm. Semple's garden.

Mr. Cairns, the pastor read the following memoriam, as a tribute to those members deceased: Mrs. Wm. Smith, Mrs. Frank Sayers, Mrs. A. Holroyd, Mrs. Norman Hindle, Mrs. John Ottewell, Snr., Mrs. Dave Roberts and Mrs. Ed. Harbottle, who have all passed on to their rest, but are not forgotten on this 25th anniversary. They are remembered for their great interest and active work in His Master's service.

A beautiful memory they left behind—
Those friends who were faithful, true and kind,
Alone, unseen, they stand by our side
And whisper "Work on, with God as your guide."
Deep in our hearts their memory is kept,
Friends we loved and can never forget;
Remembrance is the rose which blooms
Eternal, year by year,
Sweet memories clinging to the heart
Keeps our dear friends quite near;
The tender thoughts that linger on
Are links that ever bind.
The loved ones who have gone before
With those they left behind.

The members of the Providence Ladies' Aid extend to Mrs. Will Semple, their vice-president, best wishes for a speedy restoration to good health.
