A young wife's most anxious moment, says a writer, is when she bakes her first cake. And her husband's when he eats a slice.

When a man speaks "straight from the shoulder,' it's often too bad it can't originate a little higher up.

CHARD — ATKINSON

A profusion of summer flowers and ferns in front of the mantle, furnished a lovely setting in the living room of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Weber, Kimberley, when Edythe Atkinson, daughter of Mrs. C. Atkinson, became the bride of Kendall Lloyd, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Chard of Kimberley, on Saturday at 2 o'clock. The ceremony, conducted by Rev. L. E. West, was witnessed by members of the immediate families.

The bride, gowned in a street-length dress of pink moire with a white hat and corsage of Killarney roses, was attended by her sister, Miss Dorothy Atkinson, in pale blue taffeta with white hat and corsage of Briar Cliffe roses. Russell Chard, brother of the groom, was bestman.

The bride's table was beautifully decorated with a three-tier wedding cake, surrounded by white and pink roses and pink candles in silver holders.

The groom's gift to the bride was a dainty wrist watch and to the groomsman a Parker pen. The bride presented her bridesmaid with a string of pearls.

The young couple left on their honeymoon by motor to Northern Ontario, the bride travelling in a grey two-piece dress and grey shorty coat with white accessories.

In Memoriam

McKINNON — In loving memory of a dear mother, who passed away June 27th, 1937.

She has gone across the river
To the shores of ever green,
And we long to see her dear face,
But the river flows between.
Some day, some time, our eyes shall see
The face we loved so well;
Some day we'll clasp her loving hand
And never say farewell.

— Ever remembered by Gordon, Phyllis and Tena.
