Hugh D. Pedlar Died In West in His 65th Year

Hugh Doherty Pedlar, publisher of the Oxbow, Sask. Herald for over 35 years, and a member of Oxbow town council for several terms, passed away on Monday at the age of 64 years. The late Mr. Pedlar had been in declining health for the past eight years. He was a member of the Canadian Order of Foresters and had formerly taken an active and leading part in the business life of the community.

Son of the late William and Matilda Pedlar, Hugh Pedlar was born at Eugenia Falls, near Flesherton, on Oct. 13th, 1884. When a young man he entered the printing trade on The Flesherton Advance, following up the trade at Owen Sound, Walkerton and other Ontario points.

The late Mr. Pedlar came west in the fall of 1907, and spent the winter in the Glen Ewen district, where he was married to Annie Elmer Benedict on Christmas Day, 1907. The following spring he came to Oxbow and went to work on The Oxbow Herald in the employ of the late John Henry Noble. In 1916 he purchased the newspaper and took over as proprietor and publisher.

In his progressive outlook toward the community, Hugh Pedlar threw the whole support of his newspaper behind any enterprise which he believed to be in the interests of the town. Apart from the service he rendered the district in his capacity as publisher, Mr. Pedlar took an active part in the public and business life of the town and district. He was a member of the town council for almost 20 years, being first elected by acclamation in 1923. Twice he was re-elected to this office, on one occasion heading the poll. He was also a director of the Oxbow Agricultural Society and did his full share in promoting the fair and other activities of this organization when it wasin operation. He was an enthusiastic curler and engaged in various other sporting recreation.

Besides his widow, he leaves three sons, Dr. F. G. Pedlar of Olds Alta. Jos. R. of Oxbow, and Donald, a student at University of Saskatchewan, and three daughters, Mrs. L. Larson (Alice) of Bralorne, B.C.; Mrs. T. W. Hall (Edna) of Teulon, Man., and Mrs. L. J. Hannah (Dorothy) of Shaunavon. He also leaves a brother, Lewis, of Flesherton, and two sisters, Mrs. C. Meldrum of Flesherton and Mrs. J. Wickens of Kimberley, Ont. There are also eight grandchildren.

The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon, July 13th, with service in St. Paul's United Church, conducted by Rev. W. P. Ewing. Interment was made in the Oxbow Cemetery.

Sturrock - Agnew

A very pretty wedding of interest to many friends was solemnized on Saturday, July 16th, at the Parsonage, Dundalk, when Audrey Ioleen, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Agnew of Hopeville, became the bride of George Archibald Sturrock, Priceville. Rev. Mr. Newell of Dundalk officiated.

The bride looked charming in a gown of white satin with a fitted bodice and long sleeves, trimmed with seed pearls. The sweetheart headdress held the floor-length embroidred veil. She carried a cascade of American Beauty roses. Miss Alice Haw of Toronto was bridesmaid and wore a pale blue brocaded nylon gown with shoulder-length veil and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Mr Gordon Sturrock, brother of the groom, was groomsman.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, with only the immediate families and grandmother of the groom, Mrs. Mary Ferguson of Swinton Park, present. The bride's mother received the guests, wearing a blue flowered crepe gown with white accessories while the groom's mother wore a black flowered crepe gown and white accessories.

The diningroom was prettily decorated with white streamers, bells, calla lillies and delphinium. The bride's table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake. Serving the guests were two sisters of the bride, Betty and Lois Agnew.

The groom's gift to the bride was a three-strand pearl necklace with matching ear rings; to the bridesmaid, a set of ear rings, and to the groomsman, a gold initialed tie pin.

Amid showers of good wishes and confetti the happy couple left on a motor trip to Muskoka district, Washago and Southampton. The bride chose a suit of sky blue gabardine with white accessories and a corsage of red roses. On leaving she presented her bridal bouquet to the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Archie Ferguson.

A shower was held in Toronto for the bride, previous to her marriage, when she received many lovely gifts.

Ward - Duckett

Flesherton United Church, decorated with gladioli in tall tapering basket stands and baskets of summer flowers, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday, July 16th, at 4 o'cock, when Hilda Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Duckett, became the bride of Irvin Bruce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ward of Toronto. Rev. A. G. Macpherson officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. J. E. Milne played the traditional wedding music and Mrs. Alex. Henderson sang "I Love You Truly" during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked charming gowned in white frosted organza over satin, the bodice buttoned to the hip line at the back with a row of tiny buttons. The floor-length skirt was caught at the hem by tiny satin bows to reveal the lace petticoat, the lace-edged yoke caught with pearls, and sleeves long and pointed. Her shoulder-length veil was held by a crown of crystal beads and she carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses and lily of the valley with maiden hair fern and streamers of bridal taffeta and a shower of baby ribbon tied in true lovers knots. Silver slippers and pearls completed her ensemble.

Mrs. Doris Doupe, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and was gowned in a dress of two-tone green nylon, styled with fitted bodice, full skirt and matching bows at the front with white mittens and headdress to math. She carried yellow roses and tephonitis. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Charlene Evans, sister of the groom, and Miss Helen Duckett, sister of the bride. Mrs. Evans chose a gown of pale blue sheer with matching headdress, while Miss Helen wore a floor-length gown of yellow sheer crepe with a yellow velvet bower headdress. Both carried nosegays of Happy Day roses and sumcer flowers set in lace frills and tied with rainbow ribbon. Mr. Stanley Barlow, friend of the groom was bestman, and the ushers were Douglas Fenton and Jack Hasselfeldt, all of Toronto.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where the bride's mother received the guests, wearing navy with white accessories. The groom's mother assisted wearing figured crepe and matching accessories. Both wore corsages of roses and forget-me-nots.

The dining room was decorated with pink and white streamers, a white bell hanging over the bride's table, which was covered with a lace cloth, centred with a three-tier wedding cake, and two crystal candelabra holding pink candles. A dainty buffet luncheon was served to about fifty guests, Mrs. Sally Wagner, cousin of the bride, pouring tea. At the conclusion of the luncheon, toasts were made to the bride, bridesmaid and parents. The groom's gift to the bride was a set of matched luggage, to the bestman, a camera. The bride's gift to the groom, a Ronson lighter, to the soloist, organist and maid of honor, compacts..

For the wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Buffalo, the bride wore a beige taffesheen dress with green hat, purse and shoes. On their return they will reside in Toronto, where the groom is employed with Corman Engineering.

Friends from a distance who attended were from Rosseau, MacTier, Toronto, Nottawa, Maxwell, Dundalk, Eugenia and Rock Mills.
