

Scrabble tournament to aid Literacy North Halton

Game and word lovers are prepared to shake their tile bags and rack their brains while assisting others during the Literacy North Halton's Community Scrabble Tournament on Family Literacy Day, Monday, Jan. 27, 6 p.m. at Georgetown Library.

Participants are being asked to collect pledge money to participate as player.

Pre-registration required by January 17.

Prizes will be awarded to the winning players and the person who collects the greatest amount of pledges. The tournament is being generously supported by title sponsor, Maple Lodge Farms, as well as various community businesses.

Funds raised will go directly to support LNH volunteer training, resource library and general learning materials.
