Keep Your Supply of Cream Up

The time of year has come when the supply of cream is falling down. We wish to advise our patrons that by seeing that the milk cows are in a warm stable these cold nights, that it will help keep up the flow of cream and thus pay good dividends.

Poultry Marketing

We are paying top market prices for all kinds of poultry. Why not have your poultry custom-killed and receive top dressed prices.

Call 66 and our truck will pick up your poultry.

The Creamery open hours from now until further notice will be from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m., except Thursday, until noon.

VICTORIA CORNERS

The Remembrance Day meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Art Jackson Thursday afteronon, with 17 members present. An invitation was received and accepted to attend the Proton Station W.I. meeting and bazaar in the home of Mrs. Milton Bannon Thursday afternoon, Nov. 24th, and provide two items of the program. An interesting program in keeping with the day was given by the various members, after which lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Walker attended the Legion banquet and entertainment in Flesherton Thursday evening and on Friday morning the Legion parade in the same town.

The Young People held their regular meeting in the church Thursday evening and Friday evening one carload, comprised of Christena Duncan, Joyce Patterson, Wilma Steven, Leslie Duncan, Bill Jackson, Lyle Crockford and Aubrey Gott, attended the district Y.P.U. rally at Holland Centre.

Some from here attended the shower in Proton Wednesday evening honoring a bride-to-be, Miss Leona Neilson, sponsored by Mrs. Robt. Bates and daughter, Mrs. Jas. Jones, in the Bates' home.

A number of men from around the district have taken flight into the north counutry for the deer hunting season: Luther Love and his pals, Bert Sims of Brampton, Alex. Hergott of Brampton, Ken Hill of Markdale, Hadden Hutchinson, Bill Batchelor, Art and Ed. Badgerow of the Proton Station district and Harry Fisher of Portlaw, who went to Point au Baril. Messrs. Elmo Stevens and Bill Crockford went to Parry Sound.

Holiday and week end guests in the home of E. A. Stinson were: Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Booth, Toronto; Miss Marie Cooke, Toronto, with the Walter Acheson's; Mrs. J. C. McKechnie, Durham, with her mother, Mrs. Elmo Stevens; Mrs. Wm. Smith and daughter, Rae, of Huntsville with Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Gallagher. On Saturday they, in company with Mrs. Gallagher, motored to Neustadt and Owen Sound.

Mrs. Merritt Nicholls is visiting her niece, Miss Doris Summers, in Toronto.

Visitors during the week end at the Art Jackson home were: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Madill, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Melville Johnston and infant son, Bobby, and Mrs. Jos. Sparks, all of Sovereign, Sask. Mr. Johnstone and sister, Mrs. Sparks, will be remembered by a number here as being the twin son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnstone, one-time residents on the farm now owned by John Duncan.

Miss Flora Reed gave up her position in the Bank of Commerce at Dundalk to accept a position in the Legate shoe store, Owen Sound, having been employed at branches of that concern in South Porcupine and Timmins, when living in the former town before moving here in July. During the week end Flora, in company with her employer, his wife and family, visited in the Reed home.

Our sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Joe. Duff and family in the sudden passing of Mr. Duff at his home in Dundalk Thursday evening, following a heart attack. Several from here attended the funeral on Sunday evening at the McMillan Funeral Home, Dundalk. Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Sam Sherson and son, Alex., in the death of their husband and father at his home in Proton Station Saturday evening, also to Mrs. Geo. Ludlow and Mrs. Elvin Moore, sister and niece of deceased. The funeral is being held this Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 oclock.

LADY BANK

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wilson, who have spent the past few months at Clarksburg, have taken up residence here on the farm recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Maxwell. We welcome the young couple to our midst.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Benson and family have from to Maxwell. Succes to both of you!

The Ladies' Aid of Providence Church held their last meeting at the home of Mrs. Wm. Semple, with 14 members present. The following following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. Wm. Izard; Vice-President, Mrs. P. Semple; Secretary, Mrs. Josh Dobson; Treasurer, Mrs. Earl Maxwell; Buying Committee, Mrs. F. Shortt and Mrs. Milton Roberts Lunch Convener, Mrs. Allan Shortt; Tickets were drawn for exchange of Christmas gifts among the members. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alex. Maxwell on Wednesday, Nov. 20th.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Noble of Barrie spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Graham.

Mrs. J. E. Montgomery

Old friends will learn with deep regret of the death at her home, 550 Chritsie St., Toronto, on Sunday, of Mrs. John E. Montgomery, a native of Glenelg Township. She had been in poor health for several months.

The deceased, whose maiden name was Sarah Myrtle Hunt, was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hunt. She was united in marriage to John E. Montgomery prior to her family's departure from the district for the West some years ago. Her husband is now a teacher in Toronto.

Surviving to mourn her passing, besides her husband, are four brothers, Harold of Toronto, Percy of Priceville, formerly of Ceylon, Wesley of Regina, and Wilfred, also in the West, and one sister, Florence, in Toronto. Another brother predeceased her.

STEPHEN'S CORNERS

Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Londry have moved to Mr. E. Buckingham's home on the gravel road. We are sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Londry from our neighborhood, but our best wishes follow them to their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carson Moreland and sons spent the week end with friends at Wallaceburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Meredith, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Porteous, visited with Rev. and Mrs. O. W. Holmes at Kemble and attended church service there.

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Porteous were: Mrs. Minnie McLean of Collingwood, Mr. and Mrs. John McLean and Ruth of Feversham, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Magee and Jim of Eugenia.

Mrs. Frank Hammill and Brenda of Singhmapton are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pedlar, where Mrs. Hammill is convalescing following her recent illness. We hope she is soon feeling better.

Psychiatrist: "Forget your troubles and bury yourself in your work."

Patient: "Gosh — and me a concrete mixer."
