Do You Follow The Crowd?

"We don't have enough moral individuality today. We let others stack their opinions for us. We don't make up our minds on our own. This absence of personal moral judgment leads to mob morality."

These opinions were expressed by the Rev. A. M. Laverty, Padre at Queen's University, Kingston, Ont., in a sermon delivered to the students in Grant Hall.

Around the text: "Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil," the padre built his sermon to point out that there are times when the young people of today should not simply follow the crowd.

There is the crowd which doesn't like foreigners, which finds it difficult to understand non Anglo-Saxons but is unwilling to make the effort.

There is the crowd which refuses to take anything serious, which plays at work, dodges responsibility. There is the crowd which pokes fun at purity of thought, speech and action.

In the world today, there is the crowd which says you must be "tight" to be terrific, or have one sheet in the wind to make any headway in the social current — unmindful of the burnt-out hulks which have gone aground.

There is the crowd which has no regard for integrity of speech and conduct. The padre's text is as modern as tomorrow's headline.

No one can take your moral bearings from you, and no one can take the consequences of them for you," the pader counselled. "You are on your own. You expect and demand that your best efforts be recognized as yours. You must expect and admit that your worst efforts are labelled yours."

OJHN T. McARTHUR DIES

The Botha, Alberta, district has lost one of its old-time residents in the person of John T. McArthur, who passed away at his home from a heart attack on October 20th, in his 59th year.

Mr. McArthur was born at Ceylon where he lived with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McArthur, until coming West in 1908 to settle on a homestead in the Lomand district, Southern Alberta. In 1912 he married Miss Frances Danskin. He farmed there until 1917, when they moved to the Botha district where, with his wife and two daughters, he took up farming again. Mr. McArthur was a loving father and devoted husband and was widely known for his lively interest in community affairs and will long be remembered for his kindness and generosity in times of illness and distress.

The funeral service was held in the community hall, Botha, and was conducted by Rev. Walter Little of Stettler and Rev. Allen Dixon of Brooks. The many friends who attended and the beautiful floral tributes reflect the warm esteem in which Mr. McArthur was held. Mrs. Hugh Brown sang the beautiful solo "Beyond the Sunset."

He leaves to mourn his loss, his loving wife, two daughters, Mrs. Alvin Graham of Brooks, Mr. Ivan Mallett of Ponoka, also four sisters, Mrs. Speer of Perryvale, Alta., Mrs. Essex of Edmonton, Alta., Mrs. McCloskey of Winnipeg, Mrs. A. J. Sharpe of Red Creek, N.Y., and three brothers, George of Leduc, Alta., Bill and Gordon of the Botha district.

The total life insurance in force at the beginning of 1948 was approximately $1,007 for every man, womna and child in Canada.
