Leafs' Alumni, HHFD raise 10Gs for CASHh

Another year, another sell-out crowd for the seventh-annual charity exhibition hockey game between the Toronto Maple Leafs' alumni and members of the Halton Hills Fire Department in Georgetown Sunday afternoon.

More than a thousand spectators were in attendance at the Alcott Arena to see a cast of retired Leafs including 50-goal scorers Gary Leeman and Rick Vaive, the irrepressible Tiger Williams and a Georgetown resident, Matt Martin. Acton's Shawna Dinwoody, a cancer survivor, took a turn in goal for the Leafs' alumni again this year.

The event raised approximately $10,000 for Cancer Assistance Services Halton Hills and since its founding in 2007, close to $80,000 has been generated for local charities.

Acton hosts Skates Alive

Members of the Georgetown Skating Club fared well at the recent Skates Alive competition hosted by the Acton Skating Club, involving teams from the Midway West Area.
