RESIDENTIAL SUPPORT WORKERS

Central West Specialized Developmental Services (CWSDS) provides residential, day and specialized treatment supports and programs for intellectually disabled and dually diagnosed adult individuals. We currently operate homes in Burlington, Oakville, Halton Hills, Georgetown, and Mississauga.

Due to our continued growth, we require 10 full-time residential support workers to work rotating day and afternoon shifts, 3 full and 3 part-time awake night staff and 30 casual relief staff to support individuals with significant behavioural challenges. If you have an interest in working with this rewarding population and have related formal training and experience we would like to discuss employment opportunities with you. Qualifications must include a DSW diploma or a University Degree or 2 year Community College Diploma in Social Services. Successful candidates must possess a valid G drivers' license.

CWSDS offers highly competitive wages, a defined benefit pension and opportunities for advancement. All interested applicants, should forward their resume to the Human Resources Assistant at: tsaieva@cwsds.ca

Bellamy, Zoe Doreen, (nee Gaskill)

of West Vancouver, BC died December 30, 2013. age 95 years. Survived by her husband of 63 years John, and three children David (Shirley Carter), Douglas (Trisha Anderson) and Kathy (Ugo Orlandi), 6 grandchildren - Peter, Jon, Sarah, Michael, Alison and Matthew and her 2 surviving sisters Dorothy and Barbara, together with a host of Gaskills. Pre-deceased by her first husband James Budd, in 1943 and her sister Thelma in 2002. Zoe and her 3 younger sisters spent their childhood, first in Peace River, Alberta, then in Slave Lake. She moved with her family to Nanaimo, where she and her sisters were active participants in Nanaimo's 1939 entry to the Dominion Drama Festival in London Ontario. After Jim's death in World War II she worked as a secretary in Vancouver. She left Vancouver in 1949 for London, England where she met and married John in 1950. John and Zoe in 1951 moved first to Toronto and then to Georgetown, Ontario where she raised her 3 children. Zoe in addition to caring for her 3 children, ran a successful bookstore. In 1981 John retired, and Zoe sold the store. They moved that year to the West Coast, where they travelled and enjoyed their retirement, until advancing age and arthritis led them into care in 2008. Special thanks to the wonderful staff at Kiwanis Care Facility. Memorial Service was held January 6, 2014 at 2 p.m. Boal Chapel, 1505 Lillooet Road, North Vancouver. Flowers gratefully declined. Donations if desired to The Arthritis Society- BC and Yukon Division.
