PRICEVILLE

Friday evening the W. A. of St. Columba United Church held a successful bazaar. The home products table was in charge of Mrs. Alfred O'Dell Jr., and Mrs. Ken McArthur, fancy work, Mrs. Cecil Hunter, Mrs. John Meads and Mrs. Percy Hunt, sale of cards and Christmas tree gifts by Mrs. Donald Reilley, which took the place of the fish pond. A great display of fancy work and eats were for sale at each table. The tea table was presided over by Mrs. A. McArthur and Mrs. R. H. McConkey assisted by other willing helpers of the W.A. The table was surrounded by five card tables, each having a Christmas decoration as centre piece. The main table was covered with a lace table cloth and silver tea service and plates of artistically dainty sandwiches and cakes. Mrs. Joe McKee and Mrs. J. C. Harrison received the guests at the door. The Sunday School room was decorated in red, green and white streamers. A program of readings, songs, etc., followed. Mrs. L. W. Mould gave a story of gold, frankincense and myrrh, which was well rendered and greatly enjoyed. Rev. Mould sang a carol and Mrs. Thos. Currie gave a splendid reading, in her inimitable way. The junior choir rendered two numbers. A very enjoyable evening was spent together.

Tuesday afternoon and Willing Helpers an W.M.S. was held in the basement of the Presbyterian church when 20 ladies were present, with Mrs. J. A. Nichol presiding. The roll call was respended to by a donation of 25c toward the Sunday School Christmas tree. Mrs. J. A. Nichol, and Mrs. Dan Campbell each gave Christmas reading, while Mrs. Archie McCuaig read one of Edgar Guest's poems "The Little Church." The 1950 program were given to the members. Mrs. D. L. MacArthur presided for the W.M.S. Mrs Malcolm McLean and Mrs. T. Nichol each gave readings and Mrs. Jack Whyte read an article written by Rev. Paul Rumble of Japan. The Thankoffering envelopes were handed in with generous donations. The meeting closed by singing a hymn and repeating the Lord's Prayer.

A generous woman had noticed that, whenever she went through the street, a down-and-out man stood in front of the drugstore. One morning feeling sorry for him, she slipped a dollar into his hand and whispered, "There's hope."

That evening he stopped her and handed her $6.

"What does this mean?" she asked him.

"It means, mum, that There's Hope came in at 5 to 1."

PORTLAW

Thelma Fisher arrived home from Orangeville Hospital on Friday and is now doing nicely.

Doreen Fisher is assisting in E. J. Fisher's store through the Christmas season.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fisher visited with the former's sister, Mrs. Robt. Hill, in Dundalk, who was very unfortunate to break her leg. They also visited with Mrs. Archie Fisher, who had fallen and broke here wrist.

The school concert was very successful, the boys and girls all giving their parts well. Mr. C. D. Meldrum acted as chairman and Mrs. Waddell assisted with the music. The fourth line orchestra gave some selections and, as always, good old Santa appeared at the close. Proceeds for the evening were about $20.

ORANGE VALLEY

The Farm Forum met at the home of Wm. Hill, with 45 prseent for the topic "As others see us," Mrs. Gordon Hill acting as discussion leader, and Ed. Biernes and Miss McFadden as secretaries.

After reading of correspondence and voting $15.00 to the Provincial Farm Forum office, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hill were seated, and Mrs. Lorne Bumstead read and address of farewell and presentation, emphasizing what a good neighbor and friends like Mr. and Mrs. Hill meant is our neighborhood, and hoped that they may be long spared to enjoy retirement. Messrs. Wm. McFadden and Lorne Bumstead presented them with a tri-lighte floor lamp. Mr. Hill thanked all present for the gift. After a sing-song, progressive crokinole was played, Len Alcox and Mrs. Smith winning high prizes.

The box social, sponsored by the Farm Forum, was presented in the school house to a good audience on Friday evening, and was a success throughout Mr. and Mrs. Langman of Markdale, with bagpipes and two solo numbers. Mr. Langman acted as auctioneer. The three short plays were humorous and well acted, especially the Irishman. The minstrel show brought plenty of laughter.

If you have no capacity for happiness with little money, wealth would bring you no joy.
