Ruth Hamilton

Don't gamble with color! It has a strong influence upon the happiness, safety and well being of your family, according to Ruth Hamilton, visiting color authority.

You are invited to attend the presentation of "Magic in Your Home Through Color Dynamics," an illustrated program on the art of color and home decoration by Ruth Hamilton of the Pittsburg Home Decoration Bureau. Attractive charts and amusing anecdotes will demonstrate the psychological effect of color on the individual.

There will be a special showing of Pittsburg Paints' color movie "We Decorate our Home." Valuable lucky draws and quiz contest will take place at the conclusion of this outstanding presentation.

Cream Is Staying Up In Price

CREAM is one of the Farm Products that is staying up in price, and is likely to be a good price for some time. Our advice to the farmer is produce as much cream as possible and deliver it to Flesherton Creamery, where every patron is a satisfied patron.

We are still paying top market prices for

FOWL and CHICKENS, ALIVE OR DRESSED

Why not bring them in and them custom killed?

LIQUOR AND LIVING

To a very great extent the consumption of alcohol to excess is an effect of bad living conditions. Where there is poverty, squalor, overcrowding and similar miseries, there is always too much drinking by people seeking with alcohol to deaden the pains of their physical disabilities and discomforts. One cure is to end the social conditions that give rise to drinking.—St. John's News.

The Christmas concert held in the school December 21st, was a definite success. Mrs. Neil Winters, teacher, Mrs. Lenore Waddell, music supervisor, and pupils gave their "all" in the varied program and presented it to a full house, with over $30.00 taken in as the night's proceeds. Jolly old St. Nick called in on the gathering at the close and unloaded his pack to all the enthusiastic children present.

Christmas falling on Sunday this year, spread out the celebrations as far as Tuesday in some of our homes. The week end brought much commotion throughout. Saturday morning Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Gallagher left for Toronto to spend Christmas and New Years with their son, Kingsley, and family; Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Moore and Elizabeth were at the nome of Jack Batchelor, Bethel, when the four members of the late Wm. Moore family, Vera, Elvin, Emma and Beatrice, and their families joined for the first time in many years to celebrate Christmas. Elvin's had Christmas dinner at Abe Sherson's home, Proton Station, on Sunday and honored the occasion of the 47th wedding anniversary of the Sherson's. Mr. and Mrs. Kilbourne Magee enjoyed a three-day celebration, Sunday at Bert Magee's, Monday at Wilfred Magee's, Eugenia, and Tuesday entertaining the Magee relatives.

Dr. R. L. Carefoot, Chicago, and son-in-law, Hans Astrup, Windsor, arrived Thursday at the Bannon home, and were accompanied gack to Windsor with the former's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bannon, who celebrated the Christmas week end with the Carefoot family there. Tuesday Jack and Mary returned home with the Carefoot car to complete arrangements to leave this Saturday a.m. for Windsor to accompany Dr. and Mrs. Carefoot on a trip through the States, as far as California. Bon voyage to all!

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Bannon, Tommy and Donna Gail, Cooksville, visited in the parental home Friday and Saturday. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Bannon and Fred entertained Doris of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Brooks and the latter's sisters, Miss Jessie Knight and Mrs. Clara Bassett of Chatsworth. Other Christmas visitors in the home were Mr. and Mrs. Wes Dever of Markdale, Mrs. Wm. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Stewart and Nancy Jane, Mrs. Elva Robinson of Dundalk, Mr. and Mrs. Don Robinson of London and Miss Joyce Genoe, Gravenhurst.

Christmas visitors in other homes in the vicinity were: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Moore and Helen, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ward, Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Acheson at the George Moore home; Jas. Walker, Miss Wanda Wills, Hamilton, with A. E. Walker; Miss Flora Reed of Owen Sound, with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Reed; Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Copeland, Salem, at the Ernie Stewart home; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Linton and family at Ed. Stinson's; a nice surprise party for Mrs. Albert. Stevens when her daughter, Dot, husband Bill Gamble, Billie and Cleo, arrived Saturday unannounced from Sudbury; Miss Annie Bumstead, Messrs Gordon Wilson and Sandy Brown, Markdale, Miss Hazel Bumstead, Messrs Geo. and Bill White, Springhill, with Hugh Bumstead; Miss Edith Bell, Shelburne, Mr. and Mrs. John Duncan at Wm. Duncan's; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jackson, Brantford, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jackson and Hazel, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jackson and Jackie, Dundalk, at the Art Jackson home; thirty-four members of the R. G. Acheson family, Proton Station, at Oscar Patterson's; Mr. and Mrs. Laurie Betts and family, Barrhead, with Clayton Betts.

Those going away for Christmas included: Mr. and Mrs. John Gott to the home of Clifford Sawden, Melanethon; Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Nichols to the home of Ross Oldfield, Corbetton; Mr. and Mr. Jim Gallagher with the latter's aunt, Mrs. Andrew Howard, Owen Sound Sunday; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Stinson, Don and Bert, with the Bert Henderson family, Corbetton, both Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Clayton Betts and Gail, in company with Mrs. Luther Love, motored to Toronto on Wednesday to visit relatives and dispose of fowl.

The annual school meeting was held in the school house Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Clayton Betts was returned to office as trustees for a three-year term, along with Elwood Stevens and Ernie Stewart. The hiring of the caretaker and ecretary-treasurer was left to the trustees, who will hold their meeting in the near future.
