Cream Is Staying Up In Price

CREAM is one of the Farm Products that is staying up in price, and is likely to be a good price for some time. Our advice to the farmer is produce as much cream as possible and deliver it to Flesherton Creamery, where every patron is a satisfied patron.

We are still paying top market prices for
FOWL and CHICKENS, ALIVE OR DRESSED

Why not bring them in and them custom killed?

PRICEVILLE

The W. I. met at the home of Mrs. Belle Aldcorn Thursday afternoon, with 32 ladies in attendance. Mrs. M. McLean presided and the meeting was opened in the usual way. Roll call was answered by naming some noteable person. First aid kits were purchased by the Institute for four schools: Stone's Line, Old Durham Road, Topcliffe and Priceville. $10 was donated to the Hospital for Sick Children in Toronto. 51 Christmas boxes were mdae up and sent to the shut-ins and elderly people in the vicinity and to Miss Nock's Nursing Home here and Highland Lodge. Many thanks were expressed to the committee composed of Mrs. H. Karstedt, Mrs. J. Whyte, Mrs. E. Kinsman and Anna Shortreed, and to Donald Rtiley, who used his car for delivering. Cards and letters of appreciation were read from many for the boxes and treats. Considerable other business was transacted and an excellent program enjoyed. Mrs. Percy Sims gave a very interesting paper on the motto: "Of all the things you wear the most important is your expression and it costs you nothing." She also rendered a lovely solo, accompanied by Mr. J. C. Harrison at the piano. A poem on New Year's was read by Mrs. Neil Aldcorn and two lovely instrumentals were given by Mrs. J. C. Harrison. Parliamentary procedure was well given by Mrs. John Ritchie. A very interesting and helpful talk was given by Mrs. L. W. Mould on the subject Education and Citizenship. Mrs. J. Ritchie gave a poem "Prayer for the New Year" by Edna Jacques. Two donations were received by members who had not attended the meetings regularly. The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction.
