SWINTON PARK

A euchre party was held in the Orange Hall Thursday evening, under the auspices of Hopeville-Swinton Institute, with 10 tables in play. High man was Bob Coulter and high lady, Mrs. Jas. Hardy, with Fred Fell and Mrs. Neil Campbell holding the low scores. Lunch was served at the close.

A shower was held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McNalty in the Ornage Hall Friday evening, when a large crowd attended, and the lovely gifts were on display. Dancing was enjoyed. The address was read by Mrs. Bob Black and Gordon made a nice reply, inviting all present to visit them.

Tommy came home proudly from his first day at school.

"Nothing," said Tommy, then, seeing the look of disappointment on her face, he added, "But I learned a lot during recess!"

CREAM is one of the Farm Products that is staying up in price, and is likely to be a good price for some time. Our advice to the farmer is produce as much cream as possible and deliver it to Flesherton Creamery, where every patron is a satisfied patron.

We are still paying top market prices for
FOWL and CHICKENS, ALIVE OR DRESSED

Why not bring them in and them custom killed?

VICTORIA CORNERS

The high gales during the week end and first of the week brought terror to the minds of our people following the high and destructive wind of one year ago this week. Gladly, only one item of destruction has reached us, that of Mr. Milton Bannon's tower windmill, which has weathered many years of storms, but weakened under the grip of this one. Rather inconveniences the Bannon family at present.

Of interest to many here is the word from Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bannon of their safe arrival at San Diego, Calif., on Monday last. The Bannon's here had received cards almost every day from Jack and Mary telling of their procedure along the route. They encountered all kinds of bad weather, being held up in one place from Thursday to Saturday, due to icy road conditions. At San Diego, where they will be staying awhile, outside of their Motel door, is a banana tree. The cactus plants reach their growth there, being higher than telephone poles. It is hoped that we may be able to persuade Jack and Mary to outline some highlights of their trip after their return home for future Advance news.

Mrs. Walter Acheson visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. G. Acheson, Dundalk, on Tuesday.

Master Keith Gallagher, Wareham, visited his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Gallagher, during the week end.

(Intended for Last Week)

The ladies of Inistioge W. A. met in the home of Mrs. Geo. Moore on Thursday afternoon, Jan. 12, with an attendance of 17 members and three visitors. Mrs. Wm. Crockford, the new president, ably conducted her initial meeting and the wheel of plans for the new year was started. An interesting program was prepared by Mrs. Elmo Stevens and Mrs. Russell Patterson and given by Mrs. Patterson, Miss Lackie, Mrs. John Duncan, Mrs. Russell Acheson and Mrs. Oscar Patterson. A donation of $10 was voted to be sent to the Hospital for Sick Children.

The next meeting of the W. A. will be held Friday afternoon, Feb. 24—the world Day of Prayer — rather than on the regular meeting day, in the home of Mrs. Ernie Stewart. On that day the ladies will also enjoy an exchange of valentines, which has become a customary feature of the February meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Gallagher returned home Friday evening, after spending three weeek with their son, Kingsley, and family, Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Stinson, Don and Bert, were recent visitors with Mrs. Stinson's sisters, Mrs. Allan Wake and family, Corbetton, and Mrs. Leonard Keast, and family at Keldon.

Mr. and Mrs. Kilbourne Magee were Thursday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Magee, Eugenia.

Mrs. Jas. Forbes and daughters were Friday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stafford, Flesherton.

We are glad to know that Fred Bannon is improving following his chest and arm injury suffered during a hockey game at Flesherton. We trust he may make a rapid recovery and suffer no after-effects.

Our sympathy is extended to Mrs. Elwood Stevens in the death of her mother, Mrs. John Risk, at Collingwood Hospital on Thursday evening. The funeral was held from the home of her son, Gordon Risk, Euphrasia Twp., Sunday afternoon, with interment in Markdale Cemetery. Quite a number of relatives and friends from here attended the funeral. The late Mrs. Risk was a sister of Mrs. Herbert Nicholls and Mrs. Wm. Nicholls, both now of Dundalk. but until a few years ago residents of this community. Attending the funeral from here were: Mrs. Art Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nicholls, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Crockford and Beryl, Mr. and Mrs Arthur Nicholls, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Duncan, Christena and Leslie Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. WORKING with and for YOU

The courage to accomplish is a powerful asset in banking, as in other enterprises.

In the front line of that sweep of land settlement East and West—over the prospector's trails into the mineral regions—in new lumbering districts—this Bank's representatives developed a nation-wide and unexcelled service.

A proud record? Perhaps so, but of practical benefit to ourselves and to the public has been the close association with enterprising people of all classes, winning their way to better things.

And so, this Bank joins forces with every man who seeks to improve his position in life, for it has gained much in helping people in the past, no matter how limited their resources.

ROCK MILLS

A little more snow fell over the week end, making good sleighing on the roads. Farmers were taking advantage of the snow Monday, as several teams and sleighs were seen on the roads which have been bare for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Martin and three children arrived home Saturday afternoon, after spending the past two months in Detroit. They found the highways good for motoring, with very little snow until they reached Walkerton, when they found more snow as they travelled east.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Whitmore of Durham were visitors on Sunday at the home of Chas. Newell.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Russell, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bellamy and Mr. Chas. Bellamy of Flesherton, attended the funeral on Sunday of their cousin, the late Wm. Osborne, which took place in Dundalk.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Stephens entertained their neighbors to a euchre party Thursday evening, at which Mr. Russell Hawton and Mrs. Frank Mills were winners. Mrs. Parsonage won the consolation prize.

Our sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved family of the late Wm. Osborne, who passed away at the home of his son, Harold, in Dundalk on Friday morning.
