THE CONQUEST OF OUR SOCIAL LIFE

"Amusement is natural and necessary to human life," stated Rev. A. G. Macpherson at St. John's United Church last Sunday evening. It was the second sermon in the series "The Conquet of Life." Mr. Macpherson maintained that social recreation was necessary to our health and personality. It varies according to age and, occupation, running all the way from playing games and dancing to seeing a movie or paying a quiet visit to your friends. According to the findings of a group of eighty psychologists the best games are those which promote the exchange of ideas, conversation, laughter and temper. The latter, the speaker thought, should be of some comfort to hockey and lacrosse players.

Amusement, of course, has great possibilities for evil as well as for good. When overdone or abused it becomes a waster of time and energy, and makes pagans of us, unfitting us for the more important duties and activities. Such excess in the 17th and 18th Centuries brought about the Puritan revolt in England. The true Christian position was to indulge only in so far as it helped us to be finer men and women. Jesus was no "kill-joy," but He certainly was no pagan, and allowed nothing to weaken or cheapen His service to God and man.

Rev. Mr. Macpherson took his text from Ecclesiastes 11:9 "Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth, but know that for all these things God will bring you to account." Next Sunday, Jan. 29th, the subject will be "The Conquest of Our Home Life."

ST. COLUMBA CHURCH W.A. AND W.M.S. MEETING

The home of Mrs. J. C. Harrison was the scene of the January meeting of the W.M.S. and W.A. of St. Columba Church, Priceville, with 15 ladies present

Mrs. F. R. Oliver presided for the W.A. and the meeting wos opened with the theme and hymn. Mrs. Oliver read an article on Faith and the secretary, Mrs. Currie, read the minutes of the two previous meeting. Mrs. R. McConkey was appointed to remember the sick and bereaved of the congregation. The treasurer, Mrs. C. Hunter, reported a balance of $115 on hand at the closing of the year. It was decided to hold a talent contest, the closing date being the March meeting. Arrangements were made to serve supper to the cast arriving from Toronto for the play sponsored by the Y. P.S. Othe business was discussed and the meeting was then turned over to the W.M.S.

After the opening exercises, Mrs. Mould gave a talk on the Bible, stressing the fact that we who do not read it, are the losers. The roll call was answered with the name of a missionary. Mrs. R. H McConkey was appointed treasurer, to take the place of Miss V. Wright, who has moved away. Mrs. A. S. Muir read a letter from Miss Kate Rutherford, and highlights from the Missionary Monthly were given by Mrs. Oliver. The study book was well taken by four ladies: Mrs. J. Harrison, Mrs. Mould, Miss E. James and Mrs. C. Hunter, after which the president closed the meeting with prayer. Mrs. Harrison and assistants served lunch at the close. The February meeting will be held at the parsonage.
