VANDELEUR

Owing to the condition of roads, Mr. Dane McGee postponed his auction sale of farm stock and implements until Wednesday, April 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Fawcett and Mrs. Ethel Hutchinson attended the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. McCallan in Thornbury Thursday afternoon.

The final meeting of the Farm Forum winter series was held in the Community Hall and an enjoyable program was provided. A committee was appointed to have charge of activities during the summer and is composed of Will Ratcliffe, H. I. Graham, Alex. Gilray, Mrs. Carl Wilson and Miss Alcox. It is intended to have a play party, picnic, lectures, moving pictures and other events. Alex. Gilray and Elmer Cargoe were appointed as captains for the annual groundhog hunt. Will Ratcliffe presided for the program, which consisted of community singing, with Mrs. Will Bowles at the piano. Recitations were given by Miss Alcox and H. I. Graham, readings by Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Fawcett, Mrs. Ratcliffe and Mrs. Ormsby, and a quizz contest conducted by Mrs. Hutchinson. Crokinole and cards were payed and tables were then set and lunch was served by the ladies. The meeting not only completed a successful series, but also climaxed nine years of operation by the local Forum, and it was appropriate to hear Vandeleur mentioned in the broadcast. Incidentally, the secretary has not missed a meeting in the nine years.

"The girl you were speaking to, Jack, seemed rather cold to you."
"Yes, she's an old flame."
