Spring Will Surely Come

Despite the cold and stormy weather during the past week or two, we must believe that spring will soon be here with its balmy air and bright sunshiny days. The snow drops have bloomed and the tulip bulbs are shoving their green foliage through the cold ground, with the promise of lovely bloom in May and June. Spring will soon be here, so don't give up yet.

Woodlot Farming Increases Farm Cash

Modern tree farming has made wood the second most important crou produced on the 680-acre Half-Mile High stock farm of Wallace Hanline, Grant County, West Virginia. Two years ago in one selective cutting, Hanline harvested a quarter nillion board feet of hardwood, netting him $5,500.00.

Only through scientific woodlot management has this woodlot farmer been able to realize his success. Four generations of highly successful fire prevention practices and restocking with young seedlings has transformed once thought of waste land into a cash crop.

Efficient cutting of timber and elimination of wastes would allow for increased yields and prevent destruction of the country's precious woodlands. Cutting should be timed to improve the quality of the woodlot and increase cash returns. Improvement cutting betters growing conditions in the woods. Thinning gives the more valuable species room to develop and release-cutting controls growth of undesirable saplings. Finally there are utilization cuttings which prepare logs for sale or fire wood.

If the condition of the woodlot is carefully studied and analyzed and good woodlot management practices are employed, the much needed cash for further development of Canadian farms will be available. Consult the district forester at Owen Sound and he will assist you in the formation of your plans and give free advice.

Farm Radio Forum Had Successful Year

The annual meeting of the Ontaro Farm Radio Forums was held in Toronto on April 6th, with over 200 delegates from all parts of Ontario attending. From Grey and Bruce Counties as official delegates were Wesley Magwood, Hanover; Ed. Lang, Flesherton; Jas. Powers, Chepstow and Lloyd Jasper.

According to reports tabled by those in charge, the past season has been the most successful in farm forum history. A brief paragraph, taken from the report of Clare Burt, Ontario's secretary, pretty well sums up the very detailed report given. The highest number of reports received in one week this year was 714, exceeding by 11 the previous all-time high. Our forum mortality from the 1948-49 season is the lowest on record. This is a direct result of active county forum committees, and county Federation fieldmen, whose support has been greatly increased. Grey County is still on the lead with 95 active forums. Wellington is second with 63 active forums.

The most important item on the agenda of the annual meeting was the adoption of a new farm forum constitution to provide for equitable administration and guidance of the farm forum project. The new constitution was proposed by Howard Church, past president, and is very complete in every detail which, it was felt by the meeting, will provide for equalized participation by all rural communities in Ontario. Briefly, the constitution is as follows

Each county will set up a farm forum committee and the chairman of the county committee will be a director of the zone executive.

The zone chairman will be a director of the provincial board. Thus the provincial board is made up of the president, the honorary president, six zone directors, and three members of the executive of the Ontario Federation of Agriculture, appointed by the Ontario Federation. This board will elect from their group an executive that will be known as the Ontario Farm Radio Forum Council.

Ed. Lang of Flesherton was elected chairman of zone 2, which comprises the counties of Grey, Bruce, Wellington, Huron, Perth, Waterloo, Oxford and Brant.

At a meeting of the provincial board held immediately after the annual meeting, Jas. Powers of Bruce county received the unanimous vote as president. Council: H. Church, hon. president; Ed. Lang, 1st vice-president, and W. Sutton, 2nd vice-president.

Auction Sale Bill of 1848 Offers Slaves And Oxen

Says the Creemore Star: Few issues of this paper appear in which there are no public sales advertised and articles listed reflect our present mode of living and working. These changing times are aptly reflected in a comparison of the present day sale offering and what was offered 100 years ago. We reproduce a sale bill published in Cynthia (Kansas) Log Cabin of Feb. 1, 1849, which was furnished us through the courtesy of Mr. G. C. Glenning of Detroit, a former resident of Avening who is a regular reader of the Creemore Star. Note the auction sale included six negro slaves.

"Having sold my farm and I am leaving for Oregon Territory by ox-team, will offer on March 1, 1848, all my personal property, to wit:—All of ox-teams except two teams, Buck and Ben and Tom and Jerry; two milk cows; one grey mare and colt; one pair of oxen and yoke; one baby yoke; two ox-carts; plow with wood mold board; 800 to 1000 3-ft. clapboards; 1500 10-ft. fence rails; one 60-gal. soap kettle; 85 sugar troughs made of white ash timber; 10-gal. maple syrup; two spinning wheels; 30 lbs. mutton tallow; one large loom made by Jerry Wilson; 300 poles; 100 slip hoops; 100 empty barrels; 32-gal. barrel of Johnson Miller whiskey, 7 years old; 20 gal. apple brandy; one 40 gal copper still one dozen wooden pitchforks; one dozen real books; two handle hooks; three scythes and cradles; one dozen wooden pitchforks; one-half interest in tan yards; one 33 cal. rifle; bullet mould and powder horn; 50 gal. soft soap; hams, bacon and lard; 40 gal. sorgum molasses; six heat of fox hounds, all sound-mouthed except one.

At the same time I will sell my six negro slaves—two men, 35 and 50 years old; two boys, 12 and 18 years old; two mulatto wenches, 40 and 30 years old. Will sell all together to same party as will not separate them.

"Terms of sale, cash in hand or note to draw four per cent interest, wtih Bob McConnel as surety.

Feversham Broomball

Considerable rivalry has been evident this year between the Feversham and Tenth Line broomball teams, with Feversham holding the championship. With both teams at full strength on Thursday night of last week, the Tenth Line boys went to work and white-washed their talented opponents 4-1 in an exciting game, which was hard-fought for sixty minutes. This will probably be the last game of the season.
