VICTORIA CORNERS

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bannon enjoyed a week end jaunt to visit relatives at Clairville, Woodbridge, Toronto and Cooksville from March 30 to April 3rd.

Our sympathy is extended to Mr. Hugh Bumstead in the death of his aged mother at her home in Meaford on Friday evening.

A great deal of sickness, including 'flu, mumps and an "over Easter" outbreak of measles, are catching on with many homes of the community. We can only look forward to a distinct change of season with Spring sunshine and warmth, to clear up these diseases, which have had a wide scope of territory to play around in this winter.

Mrs. Russell Linton was week end visitor at Brampton and Toronto.

Several visitors were here from other points, including: from Toronto, Doris Bannon, in the parental home; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Moore, in the George Moore home; Miss Marie Cook, with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Acheson; Miss Hazel Jackson, at Art Jackson's; Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Booth, with E. A. Stinson's; Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Batchelor, Woodbridge, with the Russell Brown family; Mrs. Jack McKechnie, Durham, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Stevens; Mrs. Brooks, Maxwell, with her husband, Ed., at Luther Love's; Miss Flora Reed and girl friend of Owen Sound, with Mr. and Mrs. D. Reed.

Miss Peggy Linton of the Bank of Commerce staff, Owen Sound, spent Easter in the parental home and commenced a three week's vacation.
