VICTORIA CORNERS

To pen correspondence today is to write a book on community sickness. Whole families have been attacked lately, including the Elmo Stevens, Walter Acheson, George Moore and Hugh Bumstead homes, with 'flu and the John Duncan home with measles. Wilma Stevens and Bert Stinson are also measles victims and Ed. Stinson the 'flu. We trust all may soon be enjoying usual good health again.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Coon, Bobby and Billie, and Mrs. Albert Stinson, Acton, visited with the E. A. Stinson's on Sunday. Mrs. Stinson remained here for the summer months, having spent the winter months in the homes of her daughters, Mrs. Coon, and Mrs. Mel. Hawes, Bright.

Mrs. Bert Sims, Brampton, was a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Clayton Betts, last week.

Mr. Wilfred Gallagher visited a few days last week with his son, Kingsley, and family, Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Wickens, Kimberley, visited on Sunday with the latter's sister, Mrs. Elwood Stevens.

Church service was cancelled on Sunday, due to most of the families having illness in their homes and some on the back lines "mudded in."

Misses Elda and Helen Reid of Brampton visited during the week end with their grandmother, Mrs. Jas. Linton, and other members of the Linton family.

Miss Peggy Linton had as her weekend guest, Miss Delores Johnston, teaching near Singhampton.

(Intended for Last Week)

Easter vacation is over and teacher and pupils are back at their studies. The majority of homes in the community had one or more victims of measles, making the holiday season not so interesting. Those not entertaining measles tried their luck at the 'flu or mumps. Warmer weather was ushered in during the week end and we hope will continue, and whip the diseases into the discard.

Master Keith Gallagher, Wareham, spent part of his vacation with is grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Gallagher. We are sorry that Keith started his holidays with a severe accident at his daddy's barn. Going to the found, he found it chilly and went to the house for his mittens, arriving back at the barn as his daddy was letting the horses out to water. In some way he was struck by one of the horses and rendered unconscious. Medical aid was summoned, but for some hours the little patient remained unconscious. A trip to the doctor on Saturday instructed him to remain quiet. He still has a swelling on his head and a blackened, gashed eye. We all hope Keith may get along real well and have no bad after-effects.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Gallagher are in Dundalk today (Monday) attending the funeral of the late Mrs. Murray, who died suddenly at the home of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Jack on Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bannon and Fred were in Toronto Thursday to see the colorful Scottish opera "Brigadoon" at the Royal Alex. Mrs. Bannon remained until Friday evening, when she and Doris, accompanied by their nephew and niece, Tommy and Donna Gail Bannon of Cooksville, came home by train.

Sixteen ladies of Inistioge W.A. gathered in the home of Mrs. A. G. Macpherson, Flesherton, Thursday afternoon, April 13th. The April program in the Missionary Monthly was carefully looked after by the convener, Mrs. Walter Acheson, the leadership parts being taken by Mrs. Oscar Patterson, Mrs. Art Jackson and Miss Edith Lackie. The musical arrangement was looked after by Mrs. Elmo Stevens. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess and her assistants, bringing a delightful afternoon to a close.

Mr. Ted Moore of Toronto, on a business trip through this district in the interests of his employer, visited in the home of his brother, George, on Thursday night.

Mr. Hugh Bumstead was at Meaford from Friday until Wednesday, during which time he was present at the death and interment of his aged mother.

Our sympathy is extended to Mrs. Milton Bannon in the death of her cousin, Mrs. Robt. Bradley, the former Mary Dever, at her home near Berkeley on Thursday afternoon. A number from here attended the funeral on Saturday afternoon.

Miss Martha Brost recently accompanied her girl friend, Miss Flora Reed of Owen Sound, to visit with the latter's parents here.

Sunday guests at the Bannon home were: Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Brooks and the latter's sisters, Mrs. Clara Bassett and Miss Jessie Knight, Chatsworth, Their many friends here will be interested to know that the Brooks are furnishing and fixing up their newly purchased farm home, the former Blakey farm, a mile and a quarter east of Victoria Corners. The best of luck to them in their venture.

If all the people who work for the telephone company,
And all the people who earn a living by making the things the telephone company needs,
And all the people who have their savings invested in the telephone company,
And all the people who depend on good telephone service to run their businesses and manage their homes;
If all these people, with their families, lived in one city,
This City-With-No-Name would be by far the largest in Canada, and one of the largest in the world.

Keeping pace with the growing needs of communities everywhere for more and better telephone service has taken lots of work and lots of money.

Only a financially healthy telephone company can carry on this big job.

Telephone users, employees, shareholders — everyone has a vital interest in a service that means so much to the welfare of so many people.
