Mrs. Wm. Hislop Passed Away In Her 95th Year

(By Mrs. C. H. Martin)

The Eugenia neighborhood was saddened when it was learned on Wednesday, April 26th, that Eugenia's grand old lady, Mrs. Emily Hislop, had passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Campbell, north of the village. She lived to reach the 94th anniversary of her birthday on April 24th, passing away the following day.

The late Mrs. Hislop was the former Emily McKenzie, one of a family of seven children of the late Donald and Emily (Stewart) McKenzie. She was born in King Township, moving when a child with her parents to Ceylon to the farm on which Mr. Ed. Genoe now resides. She was married over 65 years ago to Wm. Hislop of Eugenia and for a time they farmed near Maxwell, later moving to a farm in the power house vicinity in the Beaver Valley. Her husband predeceased her by 29 years. A son, George, passed away 25 years ago. She leaves in sad bereavement two daughters and one son, Annie (Mrs. John Campbell), Eugenia north, and Louise (Mrs. Wilfred Magee) 8th line, Artemesia, and Stewart of Calgary. There are seven grandchildren and six great grandchildren. She was the last surviving member of her own family. Mrs. Hislop was of a kind and jovial disposition and had many friends. She was a willing helper and was a staunch Presbyterian church, was active in assisting in organizations to raise funds for the building of the church and later was a faithful worker in the United Church and was an honorary member of the Woman's Association. Although in failing health for some time, she knit several pairs of socks during the past winter.

The funeral was held Friday afternoon, April 28th, and was largely attended, with service in the church, conducted by her pastor, Rev. A. G. Macpherson, who took as his text "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path." He preached a very impressive and comforting message, speaking of the high esteem in which the deceased was held. The hymns sung were "Abide With Me" and "My Faith Looks up to Thee." The choir rendered softly and sweetly "Meet Me There." The remains were placed in the Flesherton Cemetery Chapel, later to be interred in the family plot in Salem Cemetery.

The casket bearers were: Messrs. Frank Cairns, Dave Genoe, Fred Pedlar, Russell Park, Duncan Williams and Stanley Campbell.

The floral tributes of sympathy were beautiful and included a spray from the Eugenia neighbors.

Those attending the funeral from a distance included: Mrs. Will Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gorrell of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Bradbury, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Genoe, Meaford; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Welton, Berkeley; Mr. and Mrs. Clare Davis, Miss Hazel Wyville, Markdale; Jack Hislop, Maxwell.

The Late John Fenwick

(By Mrs. C. H. Martin)

Friends were sorry to hear of the death of Mr. John Fenwick, a former resident of Eugenia, which occurred in Toronto on Sunday, April 16, in his 84th year. He had been in failing health for the past few years. Accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Elliott, he spent several days last summer with his sister, Mrs. Jos. Williams, in Eugenia.

The late Mr. Fenwick was born in King Township, a son of the late Henry and Elizabeth (Hoath) Fenwick when four years of age, and came with his parents to the Eugenia district, where he spent his boyhood days. After his marriage to the former Elizabeth Sloan of Chesley, he lived in Elderslie Township for nearly 20 years, later moving to Toronto. His wife predeceased him by 10 years. He was of a quiet disposition and although not in good health he liked to joke.

He is survived by seven daughters, Ethel (Mrs. R. J. Wallace), Annie (Mrs. W. G. Elliott), Pearl (Mrs. A. Andrews), Margaret (Mrs. W. Walters), Gladys (Mrs. E. Murphy), Miss Marie Fenwick, all of Toronto, and Mary (Mrs. Thorburn) of Orillia. Also surviving are his brother, Thos. Fenwick, and sister, Mrs. Jos. Williams, of Owen Sound. He was predeceased by a twin sister Maria (Mrs. Ed. LeGard) of Saskatchewan and two brothers, Wm. H. Fenwick, a former Toronto Alderman and Jos. Fenwick of Sask.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon, April 19th, in Toronto and was largely attended and marked by a profusion of beautiful floral tributes. His pastor, Rev. Byers, of the First United Church of Birchcliffe, conducted the service. Interment was made in Pine Hill Cemetery.

The casket bearers were grandsons of the deceased: Beverley, Murray and Harold Wallace, George and Clifford Elliott and Dennis Murphy.

Most of those in attendance at the funeral were residents of Toronto and district, the following attending from out of town Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Williams and Mr. Thos. Fenwick of Owen Sound, Mrs. Bresso of Orillia and Mrs. Thos. Crowe of Peterboro.
