Grey County Medical Services Report Good Year

About 100 members turned out on Wednesday evening of last week to hear the financial statement and operating report of the past fiscal year of the Grey County Co-operative Medical Services, which was held in the town hall, Flesherton. The directors and auditors were elected for the ensuing year.

Ed. Lang of Flesherton, president of the Co-operative since it was started, presided over the meeting. Clifford O. Sutcliffe of Desboro, secretary-treasuarer, gave the operating report, while the report of the directors was given by Norman Brown of Clarksburg. Norm Alexander of the U.C.O. accounting service, Toronto, gave the aditors' report.

Mr. Sutcliffe reported a substantial increase in membership during the past year ending March 31st, when there were 2,263 members, an increase of 742 over the previous year. Including members, there are 6,081 persons eligible for benefits, an increase of 1,888 over the previous year. The auditors' report showed that during the past year membership fees received amounted to $26,584.72, unearned income carried over from previous year $5,646.60, making a total of $31,801.32, of which $23,584.16 was earned income. During the year 488 hospital accounts were paid amounting to $18,880.95, about 80% of the earned income. Administration cost was $1,969.65, about 8.4% of earned income. Other income was $220.00, interest on investment, leaving a net savings for the year of $2,953.56, which the members voted to be left in the reserve fund. Total assets of the Co-operative amounts to $15,528.22, of which $10,000 is invested in U.C.O. debentures and Dominion of Canada bonds.

Answering a question from the meeting regarding increased rates and benefits, Mr. Lang stated that the Grey Co-operative Medical Services is the members' organization. If, and when, increased rates and benefits are desired, this can be done by a resolution supported by a majority of members at a general or annual membership meeting. He stated that at present 65% of the members subscribe to the lower of the two plans offered, which was pretty substantial evidence that the membership in Grey County desire a low-cost plan covering partial risk.

In the election of directors, the following were elected for a two-year term: Ed. Lang, Flesherton; Elgin Wilton, Normanby Township; John Firth, Glenelg Township; Edgar Lemon, Sydenham Township; Norman Brown, Collingwood Township; John Lush, Euphrasia Township; Bert Scott, Proton Township; Mrs. Geo. Cutbush, West Shore and Owen Sound, was the only new director elected, replacing Cliff Galbraith of Sarawak Township. Mr. Lang, the president and the board of directors for the past year were commended and thanked by a motion of the meeting for the capable leadership and guidance of the organization. The officers for this year will be appointed from among the directors at a board meeting to be held shortly.
