VANDELEUR

Under the auspices of the Farm Forum, a delightful picnic was held Tuesday of last week in the beautiful Springwater Park at Midhurst, near Barrie. Nine carloads of citizens, about 65 in number, made the trip and arrived at the Park in time for dinner. They went via Singhampton and Duntroon and returned by Wasaga Beach, Collingwood and the Beaver Valley. On the way home the party stopped at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Gilray, Craigleith, former members of this community, and supper was served on the lawn, where the hosts had erected tables. It was an enjoyable outing long to be remembered.

Miss Doreen Alcox has been reengaged as teacher at the local school for the coming year.

Prior to closing for the summer vacation, the pupils had their mothers as guests at a picnic in the Community Park Thursday afternoon, when games were played and lunch and ice cream served. The teacher, Miss Alcox, presented the pupils with their report cards and gave each of the Entrance class: Frances Bodie, Leona Harvey and Marilyn Fitzsimmons a string of beads. All the pupils in the school passed their test, with a creditable showing.

Mrs. Andy Fawcett is visiting with friends in Thornbury and with her daughter, Mrs. Alex. Gilray.

Vandeleur W.I. held its second church service in Vandeleur Church on Sunday afternoon, with Ebenezer and New England Institutes as their guests, with Rev. W. M. Lee delivering an inspiring sermon. The junior choir lead in the service of song with Mrs. Geo. Buchanan as organist and director. Beautiful baskets of summer flowers decorated the church.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Lundy Johnston are: Miss Lelita Black of Brockville, Mrs. B. Brinkman and Norma of Toronto, Mrs. S. M. Davison of Owen Sound and David Quosai of Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Graham and Ruth visited Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Haw of Salem on the week end.

Miss Ruth Fawcett of Flesherton was guest of her cousins, Donna, Joyce and Gayle Wyville.

Mrs. Lorne Ormsby and Audrey are able to be around again after an attack of measles.

The July meeting of the W. A. was held at the home of Mrs. Will Johnston, with the president, Mrs. George Buchanan, in the chair, and Mrs. Ken Teeter in charge of the devotional exercises. Marie Johnston was in charge of a waist-line contest, when each member donated a cent an inch. To further the finances it was agreed that each member donate and use 50 cents, as proceeds for talent money. Marie Johnston also conducted a Bible contest, Mrs. Will Bowles being appointed as treasurer and Mrs. Mel Buchanan as assistant. The August meeting will be at the home of Mrs. S. Fitzsimmons, the first Wednesday in August. Lunch was served.

An economist says it is a delusion to believe that governments can save money. How does he know? What government ever tried?

Our economic system is terribly erratic. Most of the time we'e either flying high without a parachute or milling around in a hole without a ladder.

ACHESON REUNION

On Saturday, June 24th, about 150 of the descendants of the late Wm. Acheson held an enjoyable reunion in Dundalk Memorial Park. Softball, races and games were enjoyed by young and old. A bountiful lunch was served in the arena.

President Stanley Acheson presided over the program which consisted of a sing-song, led by Russell Patterson; readiny by the eldest member present, Mrs. Geo. Hutchinson; an address by Edwin Taylor; solo by Emily Acheson, accompanied by her sister, Evelyn; piano solos by Kenneth Inkster and Doreen Acheson and a banjo selection by Gordon Aitchison. Numbers played by Leslie Drury and Ken Smith helped to replace the moving pictures which were unable to be shown this year. The program closed with the hymn, "Blest Be The Tie That Binds," and prayer by Edwin Taylor. — Dundalk Heraldl.
