

TED'S TOP 32 PHOTO'S

I attended the "Praise and protest at deficit barbecue" May 26, 1990, protesting the GST. Receiving the brunt of the protest were MP Garth Turner and Federal Finance Minister Michael Wilson. This is one of my favorites because of the ingenuity of the protesters creating an effigy of Michael Wilson which they 'roasted'.

Ontario Premier Bob Rae and then MPP Noel Duignan were confronted by protesters on a December 1991 visit of Mold-Masters. Rita Landry and Barbara Halsall from POWER were determined to make Rae answer for his policies on landfill in the area. I really enjoyed shooting this photo—mostly for the fact Rita's toilet seat was simply outlandish.

I was sent out to cover a national Model T event at Forrester Park in Belfountain, in which the old cars gathered to take part in a rally. As the old cars made their way down the back road to the park, I suddenly 'saw' this scene from 70 years before, and I took this shot.

At Georgetown Highland Games, I always had to search for a unique angle or cute photo—everything has been shot so much before, I always tried to spot a new angle. As the massed bands performed on the field and this little boy marched with the big guys, I knew I had my shot.

My third daughter Maggie was born on March 17, and because of that, she was the natural choice to dress up as a leprechaun for St. Patrick's Day issue of the newspaper. I borrowed an authentic Irish shillelagh from a co-worker and we made up a 'pot of gold' from foil covered chocolates.
